

because they are freely transferable, can be sold to any importer of eligible goods. The petition also alleges that the subsidies have burdened and restricted U.S. commerce because they have enabled Australian leather tanners to substantially lower their prices to buyers of automobile upholstery leather for the U.S. market, thereby inflicting injury on U.S. leather tanners.

Investigation and Consultations

On October 3, 1996, the USTR determined that an investigation should be initiated to determine whether certain acts, policies or practices of the Government of Australia regarding subsidies available to leather under the Textile, Clothing and Footwear Import Credit Scheme and any other subsidies to leather granted or maintained in Australia which are prohibited under Article 3 of the SCM Agreement are actionable under section 301.

As required in section 303(a) of the Trade Act, the USTR has requested consultations with the Government of Australia regarding the issues under investigation. The request was made pursuant to Articles 1 and 4 of the Understanding on Rules and Procedures Governing the Settlement of Disputes (DSU), Article 4.1 of the SCM Agreement, and Article XXIII:1 of GATT 1994 as incorporated in Article 30 of the SCM Agreement. If the consultations do not result in a satisfactory resolution of the matter, the USTR will request the establishment of a panel pursuant to Article 6 of the DSU and Article 4.4 of the SCM Agreement. USTR will seek information and advice from the petitioner and appropriate representatives provided for under section 135 of the Trade Act in preparing the U.S. presentations for such consultations.

Under section 304 of the Trade Act, the USTR must determine within 18 months after the date on which this investigation was initiated, or within 30 days after the conclusion of WTO dispute settlement procedures, whichever is earlier, whether any act, policy, or practice or denial of trade agreement rights described in section 301 of the Trade Act exists and, if that determination is affirmative, the USTR must determine what action, if any, to take under section 301 of the Trade Act.
