

unlicensed materials, thus greatly reducing the real risk factors from exposure to licensed material and wrongfully enhancing the company's own preferred plan for in-situ disposal, which would require the NRC to waive enforcement rules and regulations. The Petitioner also alleges an NRC-Ohio conspiracy to allow in-situ disposal to proceed.

The NRC response to the Petitioner's requests have been evaluated by the Director of the Office of Nuclear Material Safety and Safeguards. After review of the Petition, the Director has denied the Petitioner's requests.

The Director's Decision concluded that no health and safety issues have been raised regarding Shieldalloy or Cyprus Foote that would require the actions requested by the Petitioner. The Petitioner has not provided any information in support of his requests of which the NRC was not already aware. The complete "Director's Decision under 10 C.F.R. 2.206" (DD-97-12) is available for public inspection in the Commission's Public Document Room located at 2120 L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20555. The Director's Decision is also available on the NRC Electronic Bulletin Board at 1-(800)-952-9676.

A copy of this Decision will be filed with the Secretary for the Commission's review, in accordance with 10 CFR 2.206. As provided by this regulation, the Decision will constitute the final action of the Commission 25 days after the date of issuance of the Decision unless the Commission on its own motion institutes a review of the Decision within that time.

Dated at Rockville, Maryland this 14th day of May 1997.

For the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

Upon Written Request, Copies Available From: Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Filings and Information Services, Washington, DC 20549.

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") has submitted to the Office of Management and Budget requests for extension of the previously approved collections of information discussed below.

Rule 12b-1 under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("1940 Act") permits a registered open-end management investment company ("mutual fund") to distribute its own shares and pay expenses of distribution provided, among other things, the mutual fund adopts a written plan, and has in writing any agreements relating to the implementation of the plan. The rule requires the plan to be approved by the mutual fund's directors and shareholders; provides for quarterly reports to the board regarding amounts spent under the plan; requires the board to review the plan at least annually; requires board and shareholder approval for certain changes to the plan; and imposes certain recordkeeping requirements.

It is estimated that approximately 4,165 mutual funds rely on the rule each year, and the average annual burden per fund is estimated to be 40 hours. The total annual burden for all mutual funds relying on the rule is estimated to be 166,600 hours.

Rule 17f-1 under the 1940 Act provides that any registered management investment company ("fund") that wishes to place its assets in the custody of a national securities exchange may do so only pursuant to a written contract that must be ratified initially and approved annually by a majority of the fund's board of directors and that contains certain specified provisions. The rule also requires that the fund's assets in such custody be examined by an independent public account at least three times during the fund's fiscal year. The rule requires the written contract and the certificate of each examination to be transmitted to the Commission. The annual burden of the rule's requirements is estimated to be about 2½ hours for each of approximately 31 funds that maintain their assets with a national securities exchange, for an estimated total of 77.5 burden hours annually.

Form N-SAR under the 1940 Act is used by registered investment companies for annual or semi-annual reports required to be filed with the Commission. The annual burden is approximately 31.5 hours.

Form N-17f-1 is the cover sheet for accountant examination certificates filed pursuant to rule 17f-1 under the 1940 Act by management investment companies maintaining securities or other investments with companies that
