Consumer Advisory Council; Notice of Meeting

The Consumer Advisory Council will meet on Thursday, July 17. The meeting, which will be open to public observation, will take place at the Federal Reserve Board's offices in Washington, D.C., in Terrace Room E of the Martin Building. The meeting will begin at 9:00 a.m. and is expected to continue until 4:00 p.m., with a lunch break from 1:00 p.m. until 2:00 p.m. The Martin Building is located on C Street, Northwest, between 20th and 21st Streets in Washington, D.C.

The Council's function is to advise the Board on the exercise of the Board's responsibilities under the Consumer Credit Protection Act and on other matters on which the Board seeks its advice. Time permitting, the Council will discuss the following topics:

Home Ownership Equity Protection Act. The Consumer Credit Committee will discuss issues raised at recent public hearings on the adequacy of Truth in Lending's home equity lending rules. The Board held hearings in Los Angeles, Atlanta, and Washington, D.C. in June concerning the home-equity credit market targeted by the Act, in which it sought the views of creditors, consumer representatives, and other interested parties.

CRA Implementation and Service Test Issues. The Bank Regulation Committee will continue its review of large-bank Community Reinvestment Act examination issues. The focus of the discussion will be on the new lending and service tests for large banks and any potential impact on community investments, banking services, and the types of funded community projects.

Treasury's "EFT '99". The Depository and Delivery Systems Committee will explore issues that may fall under the domain of the Board's responsibilities as government, industry, and others work to build an infrastructure to deliver all
