Allegheny Power Service Corporation; Notice of Filing

July 31, 1997.

Take notice that on July 18, 1997, Allegheny Power Service Corporation tendered for filing an amendment in the above-referenced docket.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). All such motions or protests should be filed on or before August 12, 1997. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

Chambers Cogeneration L.P.; Notice of Application for Commission Recertification of Qualifying Status of a Small Power Producer

July 31, 1997.

On July 21, 1997, Chambers Cogeneration, L.P. of 7500 Old Georgetown Road, Bethesda, Maryland 20814-6161 submitted for filing an application for recertification of a facility as a qualifying cogeneration facility pursuant to section 292.207(b) of the Commission's Regulations. No determination has been made that the submittal constitutes a complete filing.

The cogeneration facility, located in Salem County, New Jersey, was previously recertified as a qualifying cogeneration facility, Chambers Cogeneration Limited Partnership, 75 FERC ¶ 62,158 (1996). The instant request for recertification reflects a change in ownership interest.

Any person desiring to be heard or objecting to the granting of qualifying status should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). All motions or protests should be filed on or before August 11, 1997 and must be served on the applicant. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Compliance Filing

July 31, 1997.

Take notice that on July 28, 1997, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, the following tariff revised sheet proposed to be effective June 1, 1997:

Second Revised Sheet No. 614

On July 16, 1997, the Commission issued an Order regarding Columbia's compliance filing to implement the Gas Industry Standards Board's standards adopted by the Commission in Order No. 587. In the Order the Commission rejected the indemnification provision proposed in Columbia's Trading Partner Agreement, and directed Columbia to modify its tariff to reflect the same liability standards applicable to both EDM operations and Columbia's other equipment and operations.

Any person desiring to protest this filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with § 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
