

appearance in the preliminary phase of the investigations need not enter a separate appearance for the final phases of the investigations. Industrial users, and, if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level, representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission antidumping and countervailing duty investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to the investigations.

Background

On March 31, 1998, petitions were filed with the Commission and the Department of Commerce by North American Rubber Thread Co., Fall River, MA, alleging that an industry in the United States is materially injured and threatened with material injury by reason of subsidized and LTFV imports of extruded rubber thread from Indonesia. Accordingly, effective March 31, 1998, the Commission instituted countervailing duty investigation No. 701-TA-375 (Preliminary) and antidumping duty investigation No. 731-TA-787 (Preliminary).

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigations and of a public conference to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of April 9, 1998 (63 FR 17444). The conference was held in Washington, DC, on April 20, 1998, and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

The Commission transmitted its determinations in these investigation to the Secretary of Commerce on May 15, 1998. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3106 (May 1998), entitled "Extruded Rubber Thread from Indonesia: Investigations Nos. 701-TA-375 (Preliminary) and 731-TA-787 (Preliminary)."

Issued: May 22, 1998.

By order of the Commission.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigations Nos. 701-TA-376-379 (Preliminary) and 731-TA-788-793 (Preliminary)]

Certain Stainless Steel Plate From Belgium, Canada, Italy, Korea, South Africa, and Taiwan

Determinations

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject investigations, the United States International Trade Commission determines, pursuant to section 703(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1671b(a)), that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of imports from Belgium, Italy, Korea, and South Africa of certain stainless steel plate in coils, provided for in subheadings 7219.11.00, 7219.12.00, 7219.31.00, and 7220.11.00 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, that are alleged to be subsidized by the respective Governments of Belgium, Italy, Korea, and South Africa. The Commission also determines, pursuant to section 733(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1673b(a)), that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of such imports from Belgium, Canada, Italy, Korea, South Africa, and Taiwan that are alleged to be sold in the United States at less than fair value.

Commencement of Final Phase Investigations

Pursuant to section 207.18 of the Commission's rules, the Commission also gives notice of the commencement of the final phase of its investigations. The Commission will issue a final phase notice of scheduling which will be published in the Federal Register as provided in section 207.21 of the Commission's rules upon notice from the Department of Commerce (Commerce) of affirmative preliminary determinations in these investigations under section 703(b) and section 733(b) of the Act, or, if the preliminary determinations are negative, upon notice of affirmative final determinations in the investigations under section 705(a) and section 735(a) of the Act. Parties that filed entries of appearance in the preliminary phase of the investigations need not enter a separate appearance for the final phase of the investigations. Industrial users, and, if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level, representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission antidumping and countervailing duty investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to the investigation.

Background

On March 31, 1998, a petition was filed with the Commission and the Department of Commerce by Armco, Inc., Pittsburgh, PA; J&L Specialty Steel, Inc. (J&L), Pittsburgh, PA; Lukens Inc., Coatesville, PA; North American Stainless (NAS), Ghent, KY; and the United Steelworkers of America, AFL-CIO/CLC, alleging that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of subsidized or LTFV imports of certain stainless steel plate from Belgium, Canada, Italy, Korea, South Africa, and Taiwan. Accordingly, effective March 31, 1998, the Commission instituted antidumping investigations Nos. 701-TA-376-379 (Preliminary) and investigations Nos. 731-TA-788-793 (Preliminary).

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigation and of a public conference to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of April 9, 1998 (63 FR 17445). The conference was held in Washington, DC, on April 21, 1998, and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

The Commission transmitted its determinations in these investigations to the Secretary of Commerce on May 15, 1998. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3107 (May 1998), entitled "Certain Stainless Steel Plate from Belgium, Canada, Italy, Korea, South Africa, and Taiwan: Investigations Nos. 701-TA-376-379 (Preliminary) and Investigations Nos. 731-TA-788-793 (Preliminary)."
