BILLING CODE 4410-02-M

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICEImmigration and Naturalization Service

[INS No. 1903-98]

Overseas Refugee Processing; Derivative Refugees

AGENCY: Immigration and Naturalization Service, Justice.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice informs the public and organizations that assist overseas refugee applicants that the Immigration and Naturalization Service (Service) will grant derivative refugee status under section 207(c)(2) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act) only to a person who is the spouse or child of a refugee who qualifies for admission under section 207(c)(1) of the Act. This is a change from the current practice in some U.S. programs of admitting a qualifying refugee's other family members to the United States as derivative refugees. These other family members may still be processed as part of the same case as the principal refugee, but must now establish refugee eligibility in their own right under sections 101(a)(42) and 207(c)(1) of the Act. This action is necessary to avoid the granting of derivative refugee status to persons without a statutory basis. This notice also informs the public that those persons approved for admission to the United States as derivative refugees under section 207(c)(2) may not be admitted to the United States unless they accompany the principal refugee to the United States or follow to join the principal refugee in the United States.

DATES: This notice is effective September 16, 1998.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Karen McCoy, Immigration Officer, Immigration and Naturalization Service; 425 I Street, NW, Washington, DC 20536, Attn: ULLICO Bldg., 3rd Floor, Phone: (202) 305-2760.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Service has become aware that some of its current practices in processing refugee applications have resulted in the granting of derivative refugee status to persons without a statutory basis. The Service has also admitted to the United States persons who have been approved
