[Docket No. RP98-414-001]

Florida Gas Transmission Company; Notice of Compliance Filing

November 10, 1998.

Take notice that on November 5, 1998, Florida Gas Transmission Company (FGT) tendered for filing to become part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, effective October 23, 1998, the following tariff sheets:

Substitute Fourth Revised Sheet No. 174A
Substitute Original Sheet No. 174B

FGT states that on September 23, 1998, FGT proposed revisions to the provisions currently contained in Section 9 of the General Terms & Conditions (GT&C) of FGT's Tariff regarding electronic communications of certain transactional and non-transactional data. Specifically, FGT proposed that the electronic communication provisions that are transactional in nature and related to capacity release be included in the capacity relinquishment provisions of Section 18 of the GT&C of FGT's Tariff in a new Section 18.L, "Capacity Release—Transactional Electronic Communications." Subsequently, on October 23, 1998, the Commission issued an order accepting FGT's filing subject to FGT's "removing any language providing for the reimbursement of subscription and licensing charges incurred for the TECM."

FGT states that in the instant filing, FGT is complying with the Commission order by removing language providing for such subscription and licensing charges.

Any person desiring to protest this filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public
