[Docket No. ER99-1001-000]

CH Resources, Inc.; Notice of Issuance of Order

February 17, 1999.

CH resources, Inc. (CH Resources), a power marketer and wholly-owned subsidiary of Central Hudson Gas & Electric Company, filed an application requesting that the Commission authorize it to sell capacity and energy at market-based rates, and for certain waivers and authorizations. In particular, CH Resources requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liabilities by CH Resources. On February 11, 1999, the Commission issued an Order Conditionally Accepting For Filing Proposed Rate Schedules For Sales Of Capacity, Energy, And Ancillary Services At Market-Based Rates (Order), in the above-docketed proceeding.

The Commission's February 11, 1999 Order granted the request for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the conditions found in Ordering Paragraphs (E), (F), and (H):

(E) Within 30 days of the date of this order, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the Commission's blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liabilities by CH Resources should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214.

(F) Absent a request to be heard within the period set forth in Ordering Paragraph (E) above, CH Resources is hereby authorized to issue securities and assume obligations and liabilities as guarantor, indorser, surety or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issue or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of CH Resources, compatible with the public interest, and reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

(H) The Commission reserves the right to modify this order to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued Commission approval of CH Resources' issuances of securities or assumptions of liabilities.

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is March 15, 1999.

Copies of the full text of the Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426.

David P. Boergers,

Secretary.

[Docket No. CP99-209-000]

Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Application

February 17, 1999.

Take notice that on February 10, 1999, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation, (Columbia), 12801 Fairlakes Parkway, Fairfax, Virginia 22030-0146, filed in Docket No. CP99-209-000, an abbreviated application pursuant to Sections 7 (c) and (b) of the Natural Gas Act (NGA) for permission and approval to replace certain natural gas facilities and the abandonment of the facilities being replaced, all as more fully set forth in the application on file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission and open to public inspection.

This filing may also be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (please call (202) 208-2222 for assistance).

Columbia proposes the construction and operation of approximately 0.33 mile of 4-inch pipeline and appurtenances and the abandonment of approximately 0.25 mile of 4-inch and 0.08 mile of 6-inch storage pipeline and appurtenances to be replaced. Columbia states the facilities to be replaced and abandoned are designated as Columbia's Line 19302, located in Schuyler County, New York.

Columbia does not request authorization for any new or additional service. Columbia reports that the estimated cost of the proposed construction would be $170,900.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before March 10, 1999, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the NGA (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be taken but will not serve to make the Protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the NGA and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this application if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Columbia to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Linwood A. Watson, Jr.,

Acting Secretary.
