

not apply and the general fiduciary responsibility provisions of section 404 of the Act, which among other things require a fiduciary to discharge his duties respecting the plan solely in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of the plan and in a prudent fashion in accordance with section 404(a)(1)(b) of the act; nor does it affect the requirement of section 401(a) of the Code that the plan must operate for the exclusive benefit of the employees of the employer maintaining the plan and their beneficiaries;

(2) Before an exemption may be granted under section 408(a) of the Act and/or section 4975(c)(2) of the Code, the Department must find that the exemption is administratively feasible, in the interests of the plan and of its participants and beneficiaries and protective of the rights of participants and beneficiaries of the plan;

(3) The proposed exemptions, if granted, will be supplemental to, and not in derogation of, any other provisions of the Act and/or the Code, including statutory or administrative exemptions and transitional rules. Furthermore, the fact that a transaction is subject to an administrative or statutory exemption is not dispositive of whether the transaction is in fact a prohibited transaction; and

(4) The proposed exemptions, if granted, will be subject to the express condition that the material facts and representations contained in each application are true and complete and accurately describe all material terms of the transaction which is the subject of the exemption. In the case of continuing exemption transactions, if any of the material facts or representations described in the application change after the exemption is granted, the exemption will cease to apply as of the date of such change. In the event of any such change, application for a new exemption may be made to the Department.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 26th day of February, 1999.

Ivan Strasfeld,

*Director of Exemption Determinations,
Pension and Welfare Benefits Administration, Department of Labor.*

NATIONAL FOUNDATION ON THE ARTS AND THE HUMANITIES

Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Age

AGENCY: National Endowment for the Arts.

ACTION: Review of NEA programs for age distinctions.

SUMMARY: As required by the Age Discrimination Act of 1975 (the Act), see 42 U.S.C. 6101 et seq., the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) has reviewed its programs for any age distinctions it imposes on its recipients by regulation, policy, or administrative practice in order to determine whether these distinctions are permissible under the Act.

The NEA's review finds that all of the NEA's programs are free from any forms of age discrimination. However, because some projects of the NEA's education program do focus on students grades pre-K through 12, special attention is given to that program in this review.

The NEA's education program does not invoke the rules against age discrimination, see 45 CFR 1156.6, because the program does not exclude or deny individuals the opportunity to participate. Moreover, even if the NEA's education program were determined to violate the rules against age
