DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Office of the Secretary

Meeting of the Secretary's Council on National Health Promotion and Disease Prevention Objectives for 2010

AGENCY: Office of Public Health and Science, Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion, DHHS.

ACTION: Notice of third meeting.

SUMMARY: The Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) is providing notice that the Secretary's Council on National Health Promotion and Disease Prevention Objectives for 2010 will hold its third annual meeting, as mandated by its charter. Council members are charged with advising the Secretary on the Development of objectives for the Healthy People 2010 initiative. In this meeting they have responsibility for reviewing the draft objectives and other documents. The 2010 initiative is to be released to the public in January 2000.

DATES: The Council will hold its next meeting on April 23, 1999 from 9:00 a.m. to approximately 4:00 p.m. E.D.T.

ADDRESSES: Department of Health and Human Services, Sixth floor conference room, Hubert H. Humphrey Building, 200 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, DC 20201. The meeting is open to the public; seating is limited.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Ellis Davis, Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion, Room 738G, Hubert H. Humphrey Building, 200 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, DC 20201, (202) 260-2873. The electronic mail address is: edavis@osophs.dhhs.gov

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Council was established by charter on September 5, 1996 to provide assistance to the Secretary and the Department of Health and Human Services in the development of health promotion and disease prevention objectives to enhance the health of Americans by 2010. The charter was renewed on September 4, 1998. The Council meets approximately once a year and will terminate on September 5, 2000.

The Council is charged to advise the Secretary on the development of national health promotion and disease prevention goals and objectives and to provide links with States, communities, and the private sector to ensure their involvement in the process of development these goals and objectives. The Secretary of Health and Human Services chairs the Council, with the Assistant Secretary for Health as Vice Chair. Other members include the Operating Division Heads of the Department and the former Assistant Secretaries for Health. Management and support services are provided by the Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion, Office of Public Health and Science, Office of the Secretary.

During its tenure, the Council has overseen the development of Healthy People 2010, the third generation of a national initiative to prevent disease and promote the health of the American people. At its third meeting, the membership will review the framework and objectives for 2010 as revised by Department agencies after consideration of comments received from the public during a 3-months' period that ended on December 15, 1998. The Council will also discuss other documents that will accompany the compilation of objectives, including a policy guide, a statistical review, and options for a set of leading health indicators. The discussions will conclude with the members' review of plans for a 3-day event in late January 2000 to introduce the 2010 initiative to the public.

If time permits at the conclusion of the formal agenda of the Council, the Chair may allow brief oral statements of no more than three minutes in length from interested parties and persons in attendance. The meeting is open to the public; however, seating is limited. Because of strict security in the Humphrey Building, members of the public who do not have a Federal government identification card should call Ms. Phyllis Carroll (202-205-8611) when they arrive in the building lobby to arrange for an escort to the meeting. If you will require a sign language interpreter, please call Ms. Carroll by 4:30 p.m. E.D.T. on April 9, 1999 to inform her of this need.

Dated: February 26, 1999.

Linda D. Meyers,

Acting Director, Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Agency for Health Care Policy and Research

General Reorganization; Statement of Organization, Functions, and Delegations of Authority

Part E, Chapter E (Agency for Health Care Policy and Research), of the Statement of Organization, Functions, and Delegations of Authority for the Department of Health and Human Services (61 FR 15955-58, April 10, 1996, most recently amended at 63 FR 36698, July 7, 1998) is further amended to reflect organizational changes within the Agency for Health Care Policy and Research (AHCPR). The principal organizational and functional changes requiring this notice of amendment involve:

A. Abolishing the Office of Policy Analysis, to eliminate the overlap of functions between that office and other AHCPR offices; and

B. Establishing a third-echelon organizational substructure to facilitate day-to-day management and utilization of Agency resources (including human, fiscal, and material resources), to streamline and improve administrative operations, and to enhance shared decision-making and communications throughout the Agency.

Other minor changes have been made consistent with this reorganization.

Under Section E-10, Organization, delete C. Office of Policy Analysis, and reorder D. through K. as new C. through J.

Under Section E-20, Functions, delete the title and statement for the Office of Policy Analysis (EAC).

Within the statement for the Immediate Office of the Administrator (EA), following (6), delete “; and “, and following (7), delete the period and insert “; and (8) coordinates the legislative activities of the Agency, including the development of legislative proposals and analysis of health legislative initiatives, the review and clearance of Department and other Federal policies and regulations, and reports to Congress.”

Following the statement for the Office of Management (EAA), insert the following:

Division of Administrative Services (EAA2). Provides administrative support services. Specifically: (1) processes small purchase requests and manages the credit card program for small purchases; (2) manages the assignment and renovation of office space; (3) manages the common conference areas, copy centers, supply rooms, and mail services; (4) develops and administers safety and security programs; (5) manages the automated travel management system and provides travel guidance and advice; and (6) acquires and manages real property for the Agency.

Division of Contracts Management (EAA3). Provides for the solicitation, negotiation, award and management of negotiated contracts. Specifically: (1) solicits, negotiates, and awards negotiated contracts and provides for their post-award administration; (2) develops and manages a contract program to benefit small and disadvantaged businesses; (3) develops, implements, and maintains policies and procedures for the management of negotiated contracts; (4) provides guidance, assistance, and training for project officers on their duties and responsibilities; (5) manages the Intra/InterAgency Agreement program; and (6) develops and maintains a contract and intra/interagency information system.

Division of Financial Management (EAA4). Provides services and guidance in all aspects of financial management including Agency budget formulation and execution. Specifically: (1) formulates the Agency budget, serves as the focal point of its defense and appeal and provides ongoing coordination between the budget formulation and program planning process; (2) develops, analyzes, and monitors Agency appropriation activities; (3) establishes and maintains financial accounting and reporting systems; (4) coordinates responses to and maintains liaison on budget and accounting matters with all levels of Agency management, Department fiscal offices, Congressional committees, and the private sector; and (5) provides administrative support for Office/Center and Agency-wide operational spending.

Division of Grants Management (EAA5). Provides for the negotiation, award and administrative management of grants and cooperative agreements. Specifically: (1) negotiates and awards grants/cooperative agreements and provides for their post-award business and administrative management; (2) develops, implements, and maintains policies and procedures for the management of the Agency's grant/cooperative agreement program; (3) provides guidance, assistance, and training for project officers on their duties and responsibilities; (4) assists grantee institutions in the interpretation and application of grant/cooperative agreement policies and regulations; and (5) provides for the review of grant/
