National Park Service

Notice of Extension of Public Comment Period for Draft General Management Plan/Environmental Impact Statement (DGMP/EIS) for Little River Canyon National Preserve, Alabama

SUMMARY: The original comments period ended on March 31. Several people have asked that we extend the comment period. We are happy to give everybody the opportunity to review and comment on the proposals in the plan.

DATES: We are extending the comment period to May 15, 1999.

ADDRESSES: Anyone wishing to send comments on the DGMP/EIS may do so to the following address:
Superintendent, Little River Canyon National Preserve, 2141 Gault Avenue, North, Fort Payne, Alabama 359967.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: We received very few comments during the original review period—even though we mailed the plan to over 450 people, prepared newsletters and news releases on the plan and held public meetings in both Fort Payne and Centre. It is not a large document, since we are not proposing much that is new, but we are happy to give everybody the opportunity to review and comment on the proposals.

Copies of the plan may be obtained by calling (256) 845-9605, and the plan is posted on the preserve's website at: www.nps.gov/liri.

Dated: April 20, 1999.

Daniel W. Brown,

Regional Director, Southeast Region.

Bureau of Reclamation

Quarterly Status Report of Water Service and Repayment Contract Negotiations

AGENCY: Bureau of Reclamation, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given of proposed contractual actions that are new, modified, discontinued, or completed since the last publication of this notice on January 22, 1999. The January 22, 1999, notice should be used as a reference point to identify changes. This notice is one of a variety of means used to inform the public about proposed contractual actions for capital recovery and management of project resources and facilities. Additional Bureau of Reclamation (Reclamation) announcements of individual contract actions may be published in the Federal Register and in newspapers of general circulation in the areas determined by Reclamation to be affected by the proposed action. Announcements may be in the form of news releases, legal notices, official letters, memorandums, or other forms of written material. Meetings, workshops, and/or hearings may also be used, as appropriate, to provide local publicity. The public participation procedures do not apply to proposed contracts for sale of surplus or interim irrigation water for a term of 1 year or less. Either of the contracting parties may invite the public to observe contract proceedings. All public participation procedures will be coordinated with those involved in complying with the National Environmental Policy Act.

ADDRESSES: The identity of the approving officer and other information pertaining to a specific contract proposal may be obtained by calling or writing the appropriate regional office at the address and telephone number given for each region in the supplementary information.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Alonzo Knapp, Manager, Reclamation Law, Contracts, and Repayment Office, Bureau of Reclamation, PO Box 25007, Denver, Colorado 80225-0007; telephone 303-445-2889.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to section 226 of the Reclamation Reform Act of 1982 (96 Stat. 1273) and 43 CFR 426.20 of the rules and regulations published in 52 FR 11954, Apr. 13, 1987, Reclamation will publish notice of the proposed or amendatory contract actions for any contract for the delivery of project water for authorized uses in newspapers of general circulation in the affected area at least 60 days prior to contract execution. Pursuant to the "Final Revised Public Participation Procedures" for water resource-related contract negotiations, published in 47 FR 7763, Feb. 22, 1982, a tabulation is provided of all proposed contractual actions in each of the five Reclamation regions. Each proposed action is, or is expected to be, in some stage of the contract negotiation process in 1999. When contract negotiations are completed, and prior to execution, each proposed contract form must be approved by the Secretary of the Interior, or pursuant to delegated or redelegated authority, the Commissioner of Reclamation or one of the regional
