

The petition was filed by one worker who was not a company official. By law the petition must be filed by three workers, a company official, or a union official. The petitioner was a part-time temporary worker and thus, not eligible to file on behalf of himself.

Further, the worker was separated from the subject firm more than one year prior to the date of the petition. Section 223 of the Act specifies that no certification may apply to any worker whose last separation occurred more than one year before the date of the petition. Consequently, further investigation in this case would serve no purpose, and the investigation has been terminated.

Signed in Washington, DC this 14th day of June, 1999.

Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
