SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background.—On October 1, 1999, the

A party that filed a notice of appearance following publication of the Commission's notice of institution of the reviews need not file an additional notice of appearance. The Secretary will maintain a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to the reviews.

Limited disclosure of business proprietary information (BPI) under an administrative protective order (APO) and BPI service list.—Pursuant to section 207.7(a) of the Commission's rules, the Secretary will make BPI gathered in these reviews available to authorized applicants under the APO issued in the reviews, provided that the application is made by 45 days after publication of this notice. Requests to appear at the hearing should be filed in writing with the Secretary to the Commission on or before July 24, 2000. A nonparty who has testimony that may

All parties and nonparties desiring to appear at the hearing and make oral presentations should attend a prehearing conference to be held at 9:30 a.m. on July 27, 2000, at the U.S. International Trade Commission Building. In addition, any person who has not entered an appearance as a party to the reviews may submit a written statement of information pertinent to the subject of the reviews on or before August 10, 2000. On August 30, 2000, the Commission will make available to parties all information on which they have not had an opportunity to comment. Parties may submit final comments on this information on or before September 1, 2000, but such final comments must not contain new factual information and must otherwise comply with section 207.68 of the Commission's rules.
