TransColorado Gas Transmission Company; Notice of Compliance Filing

March 7, 2001.

Take notice that on March 1, 2001, TransColorado Gas Transmission Company (TransColorado) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheets, with a proposed effective date of March 1, 2001:

Twenty-Second Revised Sheet No. 21
Eighteenth Revised Sheet No. 22

TransColorado states that the filing is being made in compliance with the Commission's letter order issued March 20, 1997, in Docket No. RP97-255-000. TransColorado states that the tendered tariff sheets revised TransColorado's

Tariff to reflect the new negotiated-rate contract with Retex, Inc.

TransColorado stated that a copy of this filing has been served upon all parties to this proceeding, TransColorado's customers, the Colorado Public Utilities Commission and the New Mexico Public Utilities Commission.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

March 7, 2001.

Take notice that on March 1, 2001 Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, certain revised tariff sheets which are enumerated in Appendix A attached to the filing. The tariff sheets are proposed to be effective April 1, 2001.

Transco states that the instant filing is submitted pursuant to Section 41 of the General Terms and Conditions of Transco's FERC Gas Tariff which provides that Transco will file to reflect net changes in the Transmission Electric Power (TEP) rates at least 30 days prior to each TEP Annual Period Beginning April 1. Attached in Appendix B are workpapers supporting the derivation of the revised TEP rates reflected on the tariff sheets included therein.

Transco states that the TEP rates are designed to recover Transco's transmission electric power costs for its electric compressor stations (Stations

100, 115, 120, 125, 145 and 205—. The costs underlying the revised TEP rates consist of two components—the Estimated TEP Costs for the period April 1, 2001 through March 31, 2002 plus the balance in the TEP Deferred Account including accumulated interest as of January 31, 2001. Appendix C contains schedules detailing the Estimated TEP Costs for the period April 1, 2001 through March 31, 2002 and Appendix D contains workpapers supporting the calculation of the TEP Deferred Account.

Transco states that it is serving copies of the instant filing to its affected customers, interested State Commissions and other interested parties.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. [Docket No. RP01-236-000]

Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation; Notice of Tariff Filing

March 7, 2001.

Take notice that on February 28, 2001, Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, certain new and revised tariff sheets. The enclosed tariff sheets, which are enumerated in Appendix B to the filing, with a proposed effective date of March 31, 2001.

Transco proposes herein to revise its tariff to reflect new customer services and business practices that will be available on 1Linesm, a new, state of the art, internet-based, service delivery computer system that will replace Transco's current computer system. As is described more fully herein, Transco's proposed tariff modifications relate specifically to the following areas:

Offering Operational Balancing Agreements at wellhead receipt points and processing plants on the Transco system;

Revising imbalance resolution provisions to establish Operational Impact Areas, implementing imbalance netting and trading and modifying the existing cash out mechanism;

Establishing Operational Controls to address adverse operational conditions which impact flexibility;

Modifying the Nomination, confirmation, and Predetermined Allocation methodologies used to determine the daily allocations and, if necessary, capacity reductions, at receipt and delivery points;

Formalizing in Transco's tariff the pooling capabilities provided by Transco by adopting a new Rate Schedule Pooling and a Form of Service Agreement for pooling service; and

Modifying and formalizing certain pipeline business practices including those relating to capacity release, scheduling equality, liquefiable hydrocarbons processing, billing and payment, daily demand rates as well as other operational and business practices on the Transco system.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings.
