SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

This document proposes to amend section 1361 of the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR part 1) regarding a qualified subchapter S trust (QSST) election for testamentary trusts.

Section 1361(a) defines an S corporation as a small business corporation for which an election under section 1362(a) is in effect for the year. Section 1361(b) provides, in part, that a small business corporation is a domestic corporation which is not an ineligible corporation and which does not have as a shareholder a person (other than a trust described in section 1361(c)(2)) who is not an individual. Under section 1361(c)(2), subpart E trusts and testamentary trusts are permitted S corporation shareholders. A qualified subpart E trust is a trust, all of which is treated (under subpart E of part I of subchapter J, chapter 1) as owned by an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States. A qualified subpart E trust that continues in existence after the death of the deemed owner (former qualified subpart E trust) is a permitted shareholder, but only for the 2-year period beginning on the day of the deemed owner's death. A testamentary trust is a trust to which S corporation stock is transferred pursuant to the terms of a will, but only for the 2-year period beginning on the day the stock is transferred to it.

Section 1303 of the Small Business Job Protection Act of 1996, Public Law 104-188 (110 Stat. 1779) (August 20, 1996) (1996 Act) amended section 1361 for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1996. Prior to the 1996 Act, a former qualified subpart E trust was a permitted shareholder for a 60-day period beginning on the day of the deemed owner's death. However, if the entire corpus of the trust was includible in the gross estate of the deemed owner, the trust was a permitted shareholder for a 2-year period beginning on the day of the deemed owner's death. Under the regulations, special rules applied if the trust consisted of community property. A testamentary trust was a permitted shareholder of an S corporation for a 60-day period beginning on the day that the S corporation stock was transferred to the trust.

After the 1996 Act, both a testamentary trust and a former qualified subpart E trust, whether or not the entire corpus is included in the deemed owner's gross estate, are permitted shareholders for a 2-year period. Because the entire corpus of a former qualified subpart E trust is not required to be included in the deemed owner's estate, it is no longer relevant whether the trust consists of community property for purposes of the trust's qualifying as a permitted shareholder for a 2-year period. However, whether a former qualified subpart E trust consists of community property is still relevant for purposes of determining the shareholders of S corporation stock held by the trust.

Explanation of Provisions

A. Incorporation of Changes From the 1996 Act

The proposed regulations incorporate changes from the 1996 Act regarding section 1361 to provide that a testamentary trust may be a permitted shareholder for a 2-year period. The proposed regulations also provide that a former qualified subpart E trust is a permitted shareholder for a 2-year period whether or not the entire corpus is included in the deemed owner's gross estate. The proposed regulations thus eliminate the special rules for determining whether trusts consisting of community property qualify for the 2-year period.

The proposed regulations also incorporate additional changes made to section 1361 by the 1996 Act. Section 1302 of the 1996 Act added a new type of trust, the electing small business trusts (ESBTs), to the types of trusts permitted to be S corporation shareholders under section 1361(c)(2). Section 1601(c) of the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997, Public Law 105-34 (111 Stat. 1086) (August 5, 1997) made technical amendments to section 1361 affecting ESBTs and S corporation shareholders. A notice of proposed rulemaking (REG-251701-96, 2001-4 I.R.B. 396) regarding ESBTs was published in the Federal Register (65 FR 82963) on December 29, 2000. The proposed regulations refer to ESBTs and provide that certain former qualified subpart E trusts and testamentary trusts can continue as permitted shareholders after the end of the 2-year period by becoming ESBTs.

Section 1316 of the 1996 Act allowed certain exempt organizations to be S corporation shareholders for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1997, and section 1301 increased the number of permissible S corporation shareholders from 35 to 75. The proposed amendments incorporate these additional changes.

B. QSST Election for Testamentary Trusts

Section 1.1361-1(j)(6)(iii)(C) of the Income Tax Regulations provides guidance regarding when a QSST election is made for a former qualified subpart E trust that also satisfies the requirements of a QSST. Under the provision, a QSST election may be made for a former qualified subpart E trust at any time, but no later than the end of the 16-day-and-2-month period beginning on the date on which the estate of the deemed owner ceases to be treated as a shareholder (as late as the end of the 2-year period). Thus, a former qualified subpart E trust can continue as a permitted shareholder after the end of the 2-year period by electing to be a QSST.

Section 1.1361-1(h)(3)(ii)(B) provides that if a testamentary trust continues to own S corporation stock after the expiration of the 60-day period (now 2-year period), the corporation's S election will terminate unless the trust otherwise qualifies as a permitted shareholder. The trust otherwise qualifies as a permitted shareholder if it satisfies the requirements of a QSST under section 1361(d)(3) and the trust income beneficiary makes a timely QSST election under section 1361(d)(2). The regulations, promulgated before 1996, do not address when a QSST election may be made for a testamentary trust during its 2-year period as a permitted shareholder. The IRS and the Treasury Department believe that the regulations should provide guidance similar to that for former qualified subpart E trusts clarifying when an income beneficiary of a testamentary trust may make a QSST election.

Accordingly, the proposed regulations clarify that a current income beneficiary of a testamentary trust that satisfies the QSST requirements may make a QSST election at any time during the 2-year period that the trust is a permitted shareholder or the 16-day-and-2-month period beginning on the date after the 2-year period ends. Under this provision, a testamentary trust continues as a permitted shareholder after the end of the 2-year period by becoming an electing QSST. Once the trust becomes an electing QSST, the beneficiary is treated as the shareholder of the S corporation as of the effective date of the QSST election.

Proposed Effective Date

The regulations are proposed to apply on and after the date that final regulations are published in the Federal Register.

Special Analyses

It has been determined that this notice of proposed rulemaking is not a significant regulatory action as defined in Executive Order 12866. It also has been determined that section 533(b) of the Administrative Procedures Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 5) does not apply to these regulations, and because these regulations do not impose a collection of information on small entities, the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C.

chapter 6) does not apply. Therefore, a Regulatory Flexibility Analysis is not required. Pursuant to section 7805(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, this notice of proposed rulemaking will be submitted to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration for comment on its impact on small business.

Comments and Request for a Public Hearing

Before these proposed regulations are adopted as final regulations, consideration will be given to any electronic and written comments (a signed original and eight (8) copies) that are submitted timely to the IRS. The IRS and the Treasury Department specifically request comments on the clarity of the proposed regulations and how they may be made easier to understand. All comments will be available for public inspection and copying. A public hearing will be scheduled if requested in writing by any person that timely submits written comments. If a public hearing is scheduled, notice of the date, time, and place for the public hearing will be published in the Federal Register.

Drafting Information

The principal author of these proposed regulations is Deane M. Burke, Office of the Associate Chief Counsel (Passthroughs & Special Industries). However, other personnel from the IRS and the Treasury Department participated in their development.

- 9. Adding a sentence to the end of paragraph (k)(2)(i).

The revisions and additions read as follows:

§ 1.1361-1 S corporation defined.

(b) * * *(1)* * *

(ii) As a shareholder, a person (other than an estate, a trust described in section 1361(c)(2), or, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1997, an organization described in section 1361(c)(6)) who is not an individual;

* * * * *

(f) Shareholder must be an individual or estate. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (e)(1) of this section (relating to nominees), paragraph (h) of this section (relating to certain trusts), and, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1997, section 1361(c)(6) (relating to certain exempt organizations), a corporation in which any shareholder is a corporation, partnership, or trust does not qualify as a small business corporation.

(h) * * *(1)* * *

(ii) Subpart E trust ceasing to be a qualified subpart E trust after the death of deemed owner. A trust which was a qualified subpart E trust immediately before the death of the deemed owner and which continues in existence after the death of the deemed owner, but only for the 2-year period beginning on the day of the deemed owner's death. A trust is considered to continue in existence if the trust continues to hold the stock of the S corporation during the period of administration of the decedent's estate or if, after the period of administration, the trust continues to hold the stock pursuant to the terms of the will or the trust agreement. See § 1.641(b)-3 for rules concerning the termination of estates and trusts for federal income tax purposes.

* * * * *

(iv) Testamentary trusts. A trust (other than a qualified subpart E trust, an electing QSST, or an electing small business trust (ESBT)) to which S corporation stock is transferred pursuant to the terms of a will, but only for the 2-year period beginning on the day the stock is transferred to the trust.

* * * * *

(3)* * *
(i)* * *

(B) If stock is held by a trust defined in paragraph (h)(1)(ii) of this section, the estate of the deemed owner is generally treated as the shareholder as of the day of the deemed owner's death. However, if stock is held by such a trust in a community property state, the decedent's estate is the shareholder only of the portion of the trust included in the decedent's gross estate (and the surviving spouse continues to be the shareholder of the portion of the trust owned by that spouse under the applicable state's community property law). The estate ordinarily will cease to be treated as the shareholder upon the earlier of the transfer of that stock by the trust or the expiration of the 2-year period beginning on the day of the deemed owner's death. If the trust qualifies and becomes an electing QSST, the beneficiary and not the estate is treated as the shareholder as of the effective date of the QSST election, and the rules provided in paragraph (j)(7) of this section apply. If the trust qualifies and becomes an ESBT, the shareholders are determined under provisions of REG-251701-96 in 2001-4 I.R.B. 396 (see § 601.601(d)(2) of this chapter) as of the effective date of the ESBT election.

(D) If stock is transferred to a testamentary trust described in paragraph (h)(1)(iv) of this section (other than a qualified subpart E trust, an electing QSST, or an ESBT), the estate of the testator is treated as the shareholder until the earlier of the transfer of that stock by the trust or the expiration of the 2-year period beginning on the day that the stock is transferred to the trust. If the trust qualifies and becomes an electing QSST, the beneficiary and not the estate is treated as the shareholder as of the effective date of the QSST election, and the rules provided in paragraph (j)(7) of this section apply. If the trust qualifies and becomes an ESBT, the shareholders are determined under provisions of REG-251701-96 in 2001-4 I.R.B. 396 (see § 601.601(d)(2) of this chapter) as of the effective date of the ESBT election.

(ii) * * *

(A) * * * If the trust continues to own the stock after the expiration of the 2-year period, the corporation's S election will terminate unless the trust is otherwise a permitted shareholder. * * *

(B) If stock is transferred to a testamentary trust described in paragraph (h)(1)(iv) of this section (other than a qualified subpart E trust, an electing QSST, or an ESBT), the trust is treated as the shareholder. If the trust continues to own the stock after the expiration of the 2-year period, the corporation's S election will terminate unless the trust otherwise qualifies as a permitted shareholder. If the trust qualifies as a QSST described in section 1361(d) and the income beneficiary of the trust makes a timely QSST election, the beneficiary and not the trust is treated as the shareholder from the effective date of the QSST election.

* * * * *

(j) * * *

(6) * * *

(iii) * * *

(C) If a trust ceases to be a qualified subpart E trust but also satisfies the requirements of a QSST, the QSST election must be filed within the 16-day-and-2-month period beginning on the date on which the trust ceases to be a qualified subpart E trust. If the estate of the deemed owner of the trust is treated as the shareholder under paragraph (h)(3)(i) of this section, the QSST election may be filed at any time, but no later than the end of the 16-day-and-2-month period beginning on the date on which the estate of the deemed owner ceases to be treated as a shareholder.

(D) If a testamentary trust is a permitted shareholder under paragraph (h)(1)(iv) of this section and also satisfies the requirements of a QSST, the QSST election may be filed at any time, but no later than the end of the 16-day-and-2-month period beginning on the date after the end of the 2-year period.

(7) * * *

(ii) If, upon the death of an income beneficiary, the trust continues in existence, continues to hold S corporation stock but no longer satisfies the QSST requirements, and is not a qualified subpart E trust, then, solely for purposes of section 1361(b)(1), as of the date of the income beneficiary's death, the estate of that income beneficiary is treated as the shareholder of the S corporation with respect to which the income beneficiary made the QSST election. The estate ordinarily will cease to be treated as the shareholder for purposes of section 1361(b)(1) upon the earlier of the transfer of that stock by the trust or the expiration of the 2-year period beginning on the day of the income beneficiary's death. During the period that the estate is treated as the shareholder for purposes of section 1361(b)(1), the trust is treated as the shareholder for purposes of sections 1366, 1367, and 1368. If, after the 2-year period, the trust continues to hold S corporation stock, the corporation's S election terminates. If the termination is inadvertent, the corporation may request relief under section 1362(f).

(k)(1) * * *

Example 2. * * *

(ii) * * * A's estate will cease to be treated as the shareholder for purposes of section 1361(b)(1) upon the earlier of the transfer of the Corporation M stock by the trust (other than to A's estate), the expiration of the 2-year period beginning on the day of A's death, or the effective date of a QSST election if the trust qualifies as a QSST. * * *

* * * * *

Example 3. 2-year rule under section 1361(c)(2)(A)(ii) and (iii). F owns stock of Corporation P, an S corporation. In addition, F is the deemed owner of a qualified subpart E trust that holds stock in Corporation O, an S corporation. F dies on July 1, 2001. The trust continues in existence after F's death but is no longer a qualified subpart E trust. On August 1, 2001, F's shares of stock in Corporation P are transferred to the trust pursuant to the terms of F's will. Because the stock of Corporation P was not held by the trust when F died, section 1361(c)(2)(A)(ii) does not apply with respect to that stock. Under section 1361(c)(2)(A)(iii), the last day on which F's estate could be treated as a permitted shareholder of Corporation P is July 31, 2003, (that is, the last day of the 2-year period that begins on the date of the transfer from the estate to the trust). With respect to the shares of stock in Corporation O held by the trust at the time of F's death, section 1361(c)(2)(A)(ii) applies and the last day on which F's estate could be treated as a permitted shareholder of Corporation O is June 30, 2003, (that is, the last day of the 2-year period that begins on the date of F's death).

Example 4. * * *

(iii) QSST when a person other than the current income beneficiary may receive trust corpus. Assume the same facts as in paragraph (i) of this Example 4, except that H dies on November 1, 2001. Under the terms of the trust, after H's death, L is the income beneficiary of the trust and the trustee is authorized to distribute trust corpus to L as well as to J. The trust ceases to be a QSST as of November 1, 2001, because corpus distributions may be made to someone other than L, the current (successive) income beneficiary. Under section 1361(c)(2)(B)(ii), H's estate (and not the trust) is considered to be the shareholder for purposes of section 1361(b)(1) for the 2-year period beginning on November 1, 2001. However, because the trust continues in existence after H's death and will receive any distributions from the corporation, the trust (and not H's estate) is treated as the shareholder for purposes of sections 1366, 1367, and 1368, during that 2-year period. After the 2-year period, the S election terminates and the trust continues as a shareholder of a C corporation. If the termination is inadvertent, Corporation Q may request relief under section 1362(f). However, the S election would not terminate if the trustee distributed all Corporation Q shares to L, J, or both before October 31, 2003, (the last day of the 2-year period) assuming that neither L nor J becomes the 76th shareholder of Corporation Q as a result of the distribution.

(2) * * * (i) * * * In addition, paragraphs (h)(1)(ii), (h)(1)(iv), (h)(3)(i)(B), (h)(3)(i)(D), (h)(3)(ii)(A) second sentence, (h)(3)(ii)(B), (j)(6)(iii)(C), (j)(6)(iii)(D), (j)(7)(ii), and (k)(1) Example 2(ii) fourth sentence, Example 3, and Example 4(iii) of this section apply on and after the date that final regulations are published in the Federal Register.

Approval and Promulgation of Air Quality Implementation Plans; Pennsylvania; Rate of Progress Plan for Pennsylvania Portion of the Philadelphia-Wilmington-Trenton Ozone Nonattainment Area

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: EPA is proposing to approve State Implementation Plan (SIP) revisions submitted by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania consisting of the 1999, 2002, and 2005 rate of progress (ROP) plans for the Pennsylvania portion of the Philadelphia-Wilmington-Trenton Ozone Nonattainment Area (the Philadelphia area). Rate of progress plans are required by the Clean Air Act (the Act) to ensure progress in reducing emissions of ozone precursors. The intended effect of this action is to propose approval of the ROP plans submitted by the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection (PADEP) to reduce volatile organic compounds (VOCs) and oxides of nitrogen (NO<sub>x</sub>), which contribute to the formation of ground level ozone. EPA is withdrawing the previous proposed approval of the Pennsylvania post-1996 ROP plan, published on August 25, 1999.

DATES: Written comments must be received on or before September 24, 2001.

ADDRESSES: Written comments may be mailed to David L. Arnold, Chief, Air Quality Planning and Information Services Branch, Mailcode 3AP21, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Region III, 1650 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19103. Copies of the documents relevant to this action are available for public inspection during normal business hours at the Air Protection Division, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Region III, 1650 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19103; Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection, Bureau of Air Quality, P.O. Box 8468, 400 Market Street, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17105.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jill Webster, (215) 814-2033 or by e-mail at Webster.Jill@epa.gov. Please note that while questions may be posed via telephone and e-mail, formal comments must be submitted, in writing, as indicated in the ADDRESSES section of this document.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commonwealth submitted the required ROP plans in two phases. The first plan, submitted on July 31, 1998, consists of a 9 percent reduction in ozone precursors from November 1996 to November 1999. On April 30, 1998, the Commonwealth submitted the second of the ROP plans, which consists of an additional 3 percent per year reduction in ozone precursors demonstrated for milestone years 2002 and 2005. The April 30, 1998 submittal also included an attainment demonstration for the Philadelphia area, which is the subject of a separate rulemaking action. On February 25, 2000, the Commonwealth amended the SIP pertaining to the motor vehicle emissions reductions and budgets for the Philadelphia area. Henceforth, each ROP plan shall be referred to by its respective milestone year, either 1999, 2002 and 2005; and the three plans collectively shall be referred to as the post-1996 ROP plans. These post-1996 plans collectively demonstrate ROP from November 1996 thorough November 2005.

I. Background

The Act requires serious and above ozone nonattainment areas to develop post-1996 ROP plans to reduce area-wide VOC emissions after 1996 by 3 percent per year averaged over consecutive 3-year periods, until the attainment year for that area. In this case, the Philadelphia area has submitted a SIP establishing an attainment date of 2005, the outside attainment date for areas classified as severe-15. This 3 percent per year reduction requirement is a continuation of the requirement for a 15 percent reduction in VOC by 1996. For the post-1996 ROP plans, the Act allows for the substitution of NO<sub>x</sub> emission reductions in lieu of VOC emission reductions so long as reductions in both precursors are beneficial for reducing ozone levels. EPA has issued guidance applicable to the appropriate ratio of NO<sub>x</sub> to VOC. Our assessment of the post-1996 ROP plans is to determine whether or not the 3 percent per year reduction requirement is met.

II. Calculation of the 3 Percent Per Year Reduction

An ROP plan consists of a plan to achieve a target level of emissions. There are several important emissions inventories and calculations associated with the plan. These include: The base year emission inventory, future year projection inventories, and target level calculations. Each of these is described below.

A. Base Year Emission Inventory

EPA approved the 1990 base year VOC emissions inventory for Pennsylvania's portion of the Philadelphia nonattainment area on June 9, 1997 (62 FR 31343). EPA approved the 1990 NO<sub>x</sub> base year emission inventory for Pennsylvania's portion of the Philadelphia nonattainment area on June 17, 1999 (64 FR 32424).

B. Calculation of Needed Reductions and Target Levels

The process for the calculation of the required reductions is set forth in EPA's guidance document entitled "Guidance on the Post-96 Rate of Progress Plans and the Attainment Demonstration," January 1994. The "target level" of emission represents the maximum amount of emissions that a nonattainment area can have in the given target year. Section 182(c)(2)(C) of the Act allows states to substitute NO<sub>x</sub> emission reductions that occur after 1990 for VOC emission in the post-1996 ROP plans. EPA issued guidance for states to use in substituting NO<sub>x</sub> for VOC reductions on December 15, 1993, "NO<sub>x</sub> Substitution Guidance" and follow-up guidance on August 5, 1994, "Clarification of Policy for Nitrogen (NO<sub>x</sub>) Substitution." This guidance provides that the condition for meeting the ROP requirement is that the sum of all creditable VOC and NO<sub>x</sub> emissions must equal 3 percent per year averaged over the three year periods up to the attainment year. If a state wishes to substitute NO<sub>x</sub> reductions for VOC emission reductions, then a target level of emissions demonstrating a representative combined 9 percent
