DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Federal Bureau of Prisons

Notice of Cancellation of Environmental Impact Statement Process Criminal Alien Requirement Phase III—Arizona and California

One June 13, 2000, the U.S. Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Prisons (Bureau) issued a notice in the Commerce Business Daily stating that the Bureau would be soliciting for Contractor-Owned and Contractor-Operated correctional facilities to house up to 4,500 low security, adult male, non-U.S. citizen criminal aliens within the States of California and/or Arizona. The solicitation was subsequently issued on November 13, 2000 and proposals were submitted by prospective contractors to the Bureau by January 12, 2001. At that time, sites were offered to the Bureau for consideration in: Eloy, Arizona; Florence, Arizona; Kingman, Arizona; Safford, Arizona; San Luis, Arizona; Wilcox, Arizona; Arvin, California; Barstow, California; Orange Cove, California; El Centro, California; and Wasco, California. In support of this undertaking, and in compliance with the National Environmental Policy Act, the Bureau initiated preparation of a Draft Environmental Impact Statement (EIS). Draft EIS preparation began on September 19, 2000 with publication in the Federal Register of a Notice of Intent to prepare a Draft EIS followed by public scoping meetings held in Arizona and California during October 2000. Since that time, the Bureau has been preparing the Draft EIS which would serve to study the potential environmental impacts associated with the proposed action at each of the alternative locations.

On March 15, 2002, the Bureau issued Amendment No. 6 to RFP No. PCC-0007 cancelling the overall solicitation. Cancellation of the solicitation was deemed appropriate because the Bureau no longer has a need for the service. Since January 2001 when proposals were submitted to the Bureau, the Bureau's requirements changed. New population projections indicate a reduced rate of growth of the federal inmate population. Therefore, the Bureau has determined that it is in the best interest of the Federal Government not to proceed with Solicitation No. PCC-0007 or to complete preparation of the Draft EIS. This decision is consistent with the Bureau's strategy of utilizing private corrections contractors to allow flexibility in managing its bedspace capacity needs in a reasonable and cost-effective manner. Questions concerning cancellation of the Draft EIS process should be directed to: David J.

Memorandum for Frederico Juarbe, Jr.
Assistant Secretary for Veterans'
Employment and Training Services
From: Elaine Chao

Subject: Specific Delegation of Authority to the Assistant Secretary for Veterans' Employment and Training Services

Effective immediately, the Assistant Secretary for Veterans' Employment and Training Services is hereby delegated authority and assigned responsibilities for carrying out the functions and authority vested in the Secretary of Labor pursuant to the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 (USERRA), Pub. L. 103-353, 38 U.S.C. 4301-4333, and Section 3 of the Veterans Employment Opportunities Act of 1998 (VEOA), Pub. L. 105-339, 5 U.S.C. 3330a, except with regard to the preparation of reports and recommendations to the President and the Congress.

In addition, and also effective immediately, the Assistant Secretary for Veterans' Employment and Training Services is hereby delegated authority and assigned responsibility to invoke all appropriate claims of governmental privilege arising from the above functions of the Veterans' Employment and Training Services, following his personal consideration of the matter and in accordance with the following guidelines:

(a) Informant's Privilege (to protect from disclosure the identity of any person who has provided information to the Veterans' Employment and Training Services under USERRA and Section 3 of the VEOA): A claim of privilege may be asserted where the Assistant Secretary has determined that disclosure of the privileged matter may: (1) Interfere with the Veterans' Employment and Training Services' investigation or enforcement of a particular statute for which the Veterans' Employment and Training Services exercises investigative or enforcement authority; (2) adversely affect persons who have provided information to the Veterans' Employment and Training Services; or (3) deter other persons from reporting violations of the statutes.

(b) Deliberative Process Privilege (to withhold information which may disclose pre-decisional intra-agency or inter-agency deliberations, including the analysis and evaluation of fact, written summaries of factual evidence, and recommendations, opinions or advice on legal or policy matters in cases arising under USERRA and Section 3 of the VEOA): A claim of privilege may be asserted where the Assistant Secretary has determined that disclosure of the privileged matter would have an inhibiting effect on the agency's decision-making processes.

(c) Privilege for Investigational Files Compiled for Law Enforcement Purposes (to withhold information which may reveal the Veterans' Employment and Training Services' confidential investigative techniques and procedures): The investigative file privilege may be asserted where the Assistant Secretary has determined the disclosure of the privileged matter may have an adverse impact upon the Veterans' Employment and Training Services' enforcement of USERRA and Section 3 of the VEOA by: (1) Disclosing investigative techniques and methodologies; (2) deterring persons from providing information to the Veterans' Employment and Training Services; (3) prematurely revealing the facts of the Veterans Employment and Training Services' case; or (4) disclosing the identities of persons who have provided information under an express or implied promise of confidentiality.

(d) Prior to filing a formal claim of privilege, the Assistant Secretary shall personally review all documents sought to be withheld (or, in case where the volume is so large that all of them cannot be personally reviewed in a reasonable time, an adequate and representative sample of such documents), together with a description or summary of the litigation with which the disclosures is sought.

(e) In asserting a claim of governmental privilege, the Assistant Secretary may ask the Solicitor of Labor, or the Solicitor's representative, to file any necessary legal papers or documents.
