SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Background

An interagency ad hoc committee developed the SF 330.

It was based on the results of a joint Federal-industry survey of the existing Standard Forms (SFs) 254, Architect-Engineer and Related Services Questionnaire, and 255, Architect-Engineer and Related Services Questionnaire for Specific Project, conducted by the Standing Committee on Procurement and Contracting of the Federal Facilities Council (FCC) in 1995 and published in 1996 as FCC Report Number 130, entitled "Survey on the Use of Standard Forms 254 and 255 for Architect-Engineer Qualifications." The survey's purpose was to evaluate the current use of the forms which are used for the submission of qualifications by architect-engineer (A-E) firms interested in Federal contracts, and to identify possible improvements which would enable the existing forms to better serve the needs of Federal agencies and the A-E industry. The SFs 254 and 255 have changed little since their introduction in 1975, although the variety of A-E services has greatly expanded and new technologies have dramatically changed the way A-E firms do business. The report states that Federal agencies and A-E industry overwhelmingly support a structured format for submitting A-E qualifications, because the structured format saves time and effort and allows efficient and consistent evaluations. It also recommends many specific changes to the existing forms to enhance their effectiveness and simplify their use. Both Federal and A-E industry practitioners believe that the forms need streamlining as well as updating to facilitate electronic usage. The objectives of the SF 330 are to merge the SFs 254 and 255 into a single streamlined form, expand essential information about qualifications and experience, reflect current architect-engineer disciplines, experience types and technology, eliminate information of marginal value, permit limitations on submission length, and facilitate electronic usage. A proposed FAR rule for a new Architect-Engineer Qualifications form was published in the Federal Register at 66 FR 53314, October 19, 2001. The final rule replaces SFs 254 and 255 with SF 330, and makes related FAR revisions in 1.106, 36.603, 36.702, 53.236-2, 53.301-254, 53.301-255, and 53.301-330. Use of the SF 330 becomes effective June 8, 2004. Agencies are to continue to use SFs 254 and 255 until the SF 330 is effective.

The interim rule also implements new dollar thresholds for application of trade agreements, as published by the U.S. Trade Representative in the Federal Register at 68 FR 70861, December 19, 2003.

DATES: Effective Date: January 1, 2004.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Background

This rule amends the FAR to implement new Free Trade Agreements with Chile and Singapore, as approved by Congress (Pub. L. 108-77 and 108-78). The Free Trade Agreements with Chile and Singapore waive the applicability of the Buy American Act for some foreign supplies and construction materials from Chile and Singapore, and specify procurement procedures designed to ensure fairness, applicable to the acquisition of supplies and services (see the Government Procurement provisions at Chapters 9 and 13, respectively, of the trade agreements).

FAR 25.400(a)(3) has been revised to create the new concept of "Free Trade Agreements," which includes the Chile Free Trade Agreement and the Singapore Free Trade Agreement, as well as the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA). This list can be expanded as new Free Trade Agreements are negotiated. Likewise, definitions of "Free Trade Agreement country" and "Free Trade Agreement country end product" have replaced the definitions of "NAFTA country" and "NAFTA country end product" (25.003).

The interim rule modifies the term "eligible product" to include services, consistent with our trade agreements. Although services are not subject to the Buy American Act, the trade agreements require certain procedures in the acquisition of services, unless the service is excluded by the trade agreement (see FAR 25.401(b)). The interim rule directs the contracting officer to determine the origin of services by the country in which the firm providing the services is established (FAR 25.402(a)). This is an expansion of the concept formerly at FAR 25.405(c), which addressed only NAFTA country services. The purchase restriction under the Trade Agreements Act also applies to services (25.403(c)).

Section 106 of Public Law 108-77 and Section 106 of Public Law 108-78 provide for arbitration of certain claims. The United States is authorized to resolve any claim against the United States covered by the section of the applicable Free Trade Agreement relating to Investor-State Disputes Settlement, pursuant to the investor-state dispute settlement procedures set forth in the applicable section (section B of chapter 10 for Chile; section C of chapter 15 for Singapore). The Councils invite comment on appropriate implementation of this authorization. Sections 106 of the same public laws also require that after the new trade agreements become effective, contracts must specify the law that will apply to resolve any breach of contract claim. The statement that "United States law will apply to resolve any claim of breach of contract" has been included in each of the trade agreements clauses (FAR 52.225-3, 52.225-5, and 52.225-11), rather than creating a separate clause.

The threshold for applicability of the new Free Trade Agreements with Chile and Singapore is $58,550 for supplies and services, and $6,725,000 for construction contracts. Singapore was already a signatory to the Agreement on Government Procurement, and therefore already included as a designated country under the Trade Agreements Act (FAR 25.003), with thresholds of $175,000 for supplies or services and $6,725,000 for construction. This interim rule also amends FAR 22.1503, 25.202, 25.601, 25.1103, and 52.222-19, to implement the new dollar threshold for applications of the Trade Agreements Act and NAFTA. Because of the increasing number of trade agreements and thresholds, the interim rule provides a table of the various thresholds at 25.402(b).

This is not a significant regulatory action and, therefore, was not subject to review under Section 6(b) of Executive Order 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review, dated September 30, 1993. This rule is not a major rule under 5 U.S.C. 804.

B. Regulatory Flexibility Act

The interim rule is not expected to have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities within the meaning of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq. Although the rule opens up Government procurement to the products of Chile and lowers the trade agreements threshold for the products of Singapore, the Councils do not think there will be any significant economic impact on U.S. small businesses. The Department of Defense only applies the trade agreements to the non-defense items listed at DFARS 225.401-70, and acquisitions under $100,000 that are set aside for small businesses are exempt. Therefore, an Initial Regulatory Flexibility Analysis has not been performed. The Councils will consider comments from small entities concerning the affected FAR Parts 5, 12, 13, 14, 17, 19, 22, 25, and 52 in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 610. Interested parties must submit such comments separately and should cite 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq. (FAC 2001-19, FAR case 2003-016), in correspondence.

C. Paperwork Reduction Act

The Paperwork Reduction Act (Pub. L. 104-13) applies because the interim rule affects the certification and information collection requirements in the provisions at FAR 52.212-3, 52.225-4, 52.225-6, and 52.225-11 currently approved under OMB clearances 9000-0130, 9000-0025, and 9000-0141, respectively. The impact, however, is negligible. In the certification provision FAR 52.225-4, Buy American Act—Free Trade Agreements—Israeli Trade Act Certificate, and the commercial item equivalent at FAR 52.212-3(g)(1), the offeror must now list offers of end products from Chile or Singapore as FTA country end products, rather than as "other foreign end products." In the certification provision at 52.225-6, Trade Agreements Certificate, and the commercial equivalent at 52.212-3(4), Singapore was already a designated country under the Trade Agreements Act, but offerors no longer need to list products of Chile as "other end products." However, offerors of the Chilean end products would have been unlikely to submit offers, because purchase of foreign products other than eligible products is prohibited by the Trade Agreements Act. In the clause at 52.225-11, Buy American Act—Construction Materials under Trade Agreements, an offeror planning to use Chilean construction material would no longer need to request a determination of inapplicability of the Buy American Act, thus also removing the need to submit the supporting data specified in paragraph (d) of the clause.

D. Request for Comments Regarding Paperwork Burden

Submit comments, including suggestions for reducing this burden, not later than March 8, 2004, to: FAR Desk Officer, OMB, Room 10102, NEOB, Washington, DC 20503, and a copy to the General Services Administration, FAR Secretariat (MVR), 1800 F Street, NW., Room 4035, Washington, DC 20405.

Public comments are particularly invited on: whether this collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of functions of the FAR, and will have practical utility; whether our estimate of the public burden of this collection of information is accurate, and based on valid assumptions and methodology; ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and ways in which we can minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, through the use of appropriate technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

Requester may obtain a copy of the justification from the General Services Administration, FAR Secretariat (MVA), Room 4035, Washington, DC 20405, telephone (202) 501-4755. Please cite OMB Control Number 9000-0130, 9000-0025, and 9000-0141 in all correspondence.

E. Determination To Issue an Interim Rule

A determination has been made under the authority of the Secretary of Defense (DoD), the Administrator of General Services (GSA), and the Administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) that urgent and compelling reasons exist to promulgate this interim rule without prior opportunity for public comment. This action is necessary because the Free Trade Agreements with Chile and Singapore, as approved by Congress (Pub. L. 108-77 and 108-78), are scheduled to go into effect January 1, 2004. However, pursuant to Public Law 98-577 and FAR 1.501, the Councils will consider public comments received in response to this interim rule in the formation of the final rule.

* * * * *

■ 14. Revise section 25.401 to read as follows:

25.401 Exceptions.

(a) This subpart does not apply to—
(1) Acquisitions set aside for small businesses;

(2) Acquisitions of arms, ammunition, or war materials, or purchases indispensable for national security or for national defense purposes, including all services purchased in support of military forces located overseas;

(3) Acquisitions of end products for resale;

(4) Acquisitions under Subpart 8.6, Acquisition from Federal Prison Industries, Inc., and Subpart 8.7, Acquisition from Nonprofit Agencies Employing People Who Are Blind or Severely Disabled; and

(5) Other acquisitions not using full and open competition, if authorized by Subpart 6.2 or 6.3, when the limitation of competition would preclude use of the procedures of this subpart (but see 6.303-1(d)); or sole source acquisitions justified in accordance with 13.501(a).

(b) Acquisitions of the following services are excluded from coverage of the trade agreements indicated in parentheses. Federal Service Codes from the Federal Procurement Data System Product/Service Code Manual may also be indicated in parentheses for some services:

(1) Automatic data processing (ADP) telecommunications and transmission services (D304), except enhanced (i.e., value-added) telecommunications services (Trade Agreements Act (TAA), all FTAs).

(2) ADP teleprocessing and timesharing services (D305), telecommunications network management services (D316), automated news services, data services or other information services (D317), and other ADP and telecommunications services (D399) (Chile FTA, NAFTA).

■ 15. Revise section 25.402 to read as follows:

25.402 General.

(a) The trade agreements waive the applicability of the Buy American Act for some foreign supplies and construction materials from certain countries. The Trade Agreements Act and FTAs specify procurement procedures designed to ensure fairness. When the restrictions of the Buy American Act are waived for eligible products, offers of those products (eligible offers) receive equal consideration with domestic offers. Under the Trade Agreements Act, only U.S.-made end products or U.S. services or eligible products, including services, may be acquired (also see 25.403(c)). The contracting officer shall determine the origin of services by the country in which the firm providing the services is established. See Subpart 25.5 for evaluation procedures for supply contracts subject to trade agreements.

(b) The value of the acquisition is a determining factor in the applicability of trade agreements. Most of these dollar thresholds are subject to revision by the U.S. Trade Representative approximately every 2 years. The various thresholds are summarized as follows:

Trade agreement	Supply contract (equal to or exceeding)	Service contract (equal to or exceeding)	Construction contract (equal to or exceeding)
TAA/CBTI*	$175,000	$175,000	$6,725,000

Singapore FTA	58,550	58,550	6,725,000
Israeli Trade Act	50,000

*TAA/CBTI=Trade Agreements Act/Caribbean Basin Trade Initiative.

* * * * *

(c) Purchase restriction. (1) In acquisitions subject to the Trade Agreements Act, acquire only U.S.-made end products or U.S. services, or eligible products (designated, Caribbean Basin, or FTA country end products or services) unless offers for such end products or services are either not received or are insufficient to fulfill the requirements.
