Sharyland Utilities, L.P.; Petition for Declaratory Order

August 28, 2007.

Take notice that on August 24, 2007, Sharyland Utilities, L.P. filed a Petition for Declaratory Order concerning the scope of the Commission's jurisdiction under the Federal Power Act in connection with the use of an asynchronous interconnection between the Electric Reliability Council of Texas and the Commission Federal de Electricidad de Mexico.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. On or before the comment date, it is not necessary to serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an "eSubscription" link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s). [Docket No. EL07-92-000]

Wabash Valley Power Association, Inc. Complainant v. Midwest Independent Transmission System Operator, Inc. Respondent; Notice of Complaint

August 27, 2007.

Take notice that on August 24, 2007, Wabash Valley Power Association, Inc. (Wabash Valley), pursuant to Rule 206 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure and section 206 of the Federal Power Act, filed a Second Conditional Complaint and Motion to Consolidate against Midwest Independent Transmission System Operator, Inc. (Midwest ISO), alleging that the Revenue Sufficiency Guarantee charge allocation provisions of Midwest ISO's tariff are unjust, unreasonable and unduly discriminatory, and therefore must be revised. Wabash valley requests that the Commission establish the earliest possible refund-effective date with respect to the necessary revisions.

Wabash Valley states that copies of the Complaint were served upon the contacts for Midwest ISO as listed on the Commission's list of Corporate Officials.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. The Respondent's answer and all interventions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. The Respondent's answer, motions to intervene, and protests must be served on the Complainants.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically
