SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

Since 1995, Congress has provided $660 million to the Department of Labor for efforts to combat exploitive child labor internationally. This funding has been used to support technical cooperation projects in more than 75 countries implemented by over 30 international, nonprofit, for-profit and faith-based organizations. Technical cooperation projects funded by DOL aim to remove and prevent children from exploitive child labor, increase the capacity of foreign governments and civil society organizations to combat exploitive child labor, and to increase public knowledge and understanding of the problem. This is a new data collection that will provide critical information for an evaluation of the impact and effectiveness of OCFT's technical cooperation program. The collection will gather information relating to the issues of program purpose, strategic planning, program management, and program results.

II. Review Focus

The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
 - Enhance the quality, utility and clarity of the information to be collected; and
 - Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

III. Current Actions

The Department of Labor seeks comments concerning the proposed new collection. The data will be collected through on-site interviews, focus groups, and an e-mail survey.
