Regulations for Filing Applications for Permits To Site Interstate Electric Transmission Facilities; Notice of New Docket Prefixes "PT" and "ET" for Permits To Site Interstate Electric Transmission Facilities

April 3, 2008.

Notice is hereby given that new docket prefixes "PT" and "ET" have been established for the pre-filing and application processes for permits to site interstate electric transmission facilities in accordance with Order No. 689,<sup>1</sup> issued November 16, 2006.

Order No. 689 requires potential applicants to complete a pre-filing process prior to filing an application for an electric transmission construction permit. The pre-filing request will be assigned a "PT" docket number prefix, and all related filings should be submitted under that docket. Applications for a permit to site facilities will be assigned an "ET" docket<sup>2</sup> and all related filings should refer to that docket number.

Pre-filing requests, applications, and all related filings may be submitted using the Commission's electronic filing system (<http://www.ferc.gov/docs-filing/efiling.asp>). Guidelines for the appropriate efilings menu choices and the required number of staff copies are listed in the Filing Guide and Qualified Documents List on the efilings Web page under the entries for 18 CFR Part 50 of the Commission's regulations.

Comments submitted in both PT and ET docket number prefixes will be eligible to be electronically submitted using the Commission's Quick Comment option. Quick Comment is an easier alternative to the efilings system for submitting text comments and does not require advance eRegistration. Commenters may also use the efilings system to submit more extensive comments and/or exhibits, provided they have an eRegistration account.

If you need assistance with efilings, please contact FERC Online Support at 1-866-208-3676 or FERCOnlineSupport@ferc.gov.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

Public Information Collection Requirement Submitted to OMB for Review and Approval, Comments Requested

April 2, 2008.

SUMMARY: The Federal Communications Commission, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork burden, invites the general public and other Federal agencies to take this opportunity to comment on the following information collection, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, Public Law 104-13. An agency may not conduct or sponsor a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid control number. No person shall be subject to any penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) that does not display a valid control number. Comments are requested concerning (a) whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Commission, including whether the information shall have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the Commission's burden estimate; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on the respondents, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

DATES: Written Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) comments should be submitted on or before May 12, 2008. If you anticipate that you will be submitting comments, but find it difficult to do so within the period of time allowed by this notice, you should
