Dynamerica Manufacturing LLC Muncie, IN; Notice of Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By applications dated March 18, 2008, a petitioner requested administrative reconsideration of the Department of Labor's Notice of Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance, applicable to workers and former workers of the subject firm. The denial notice was signed on February 20, 2008 and published in the Federal Register on March 7, 2008 (73 FR 12466).

The initial investigation resulted in a negative determination based on the finding that criteria I.B and II.B have not been met. There were no plant sales or production declines nor were there a shift in production from the subject firm abroad.

In the request for reconsideration, the petitioner provided additional information regarding the production at the subject firm and requested the Department of Labor conduct further investigation regarding a shift in production from the subject firm to Mexico.

The Department has carefully reviewed the request for reconsideration and the existing record and determined that the Department will conduct further investigation.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 1st day of April, 2008.

Elliott S. Kushner,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Parlex U.S.A. Laminated Cable Division, Methuen, MA; Notice of Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By applications dated March 28, 2008, a petitioner requested administrative reconsideration of the Department of Labor's Notice of Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance, applicable to workers and former workers of the subject firm. The denial notice was signed on February 14, 2008 and published in the Federal Register on February 29, 2008 (73 FR 11153).

The initial investigation resulted in a negative determination based on the finding that criteria (a)(2)(A)(I.A) and (a)(2)(B)(II.A) have not been met. The investigation revealed the number of workers separated during the relevant period did not constitute a significant number or proportion of the subject worker group (at least 5 percent) and there was no threat of future separations.

In the request for reconsideration, the petitioner provided additional information regarding the layoffs at the subject firm and indicated that there was a threat of worker separations at the subject firm in the future.

The Department has carefully reviewed the request for reconsideration and the existing record and determined that the Department will conduct further investigation.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Nacom Corporation Now Known as Elcom, Inc., D/B/A Nacom, Including On-Site Leased Workers From Kelly Services and Simos, Griffin, GA; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on June 11, 2007, applicable to workers of NACOM Corporation, including on-site leased workers from Kelly Services and SIMOS, Griffin, Georgia. The notice was published in the Federal Register on June 28, 2007 (72 FR 35516).

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of automotive electrical junction blocks and switches.

New information shows that as of April 1, 2008, NACOM Corporation merged with Elcom, Inc. and is now known as Elcom, Inc., d/b/a NACOM.

Workers separated from employment at the subject firm had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account for Elcom, Inc., d/b/a NACOM.

Accordingly, the Department is amending this certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of NACOM Corporation, now known as Elcom, Inc., d/b/a NACOM, who were adversely affected by a shift in production of automotive electrical junction blocks and switches to Mexico.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-61,433 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of NACOM Corporation, now known as Elcom, Inc., d/b/a NACOM, including on-site leased workers from Kelly Services and SIMOS, Griffin, Georgia, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 11, 2006, through June 11, 2009, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 1st day of April 2008.

Quebecor World Including On-Site Leased Workers From Westaff, DC Staffing Services and Driver Leasing Midwest, Inc., Brookfield, WI; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on May 30, 2006, applicable to workers of Quebecor World, including leased on-site workers of Westaff and DC Staffing Services, Brookfield, Wisconsin. The notice was published in the Federal Register on June 22, 2006 (71 FR 35949).

At the request of the petitioner and the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers were engaged in the production (printing) of magazines and catalogs.

New information shows that leased workers of Driver Leasing Midwest, Inc. were employed on-site at the Brookfield, Wisconsin location of Quebecor World.

The Department has determined that these workers were sufficiently under the control of the subject firm to be considered leased workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include leased workers of Driver Leasing Midwest, Inc. working on-site at the Brookfield, Wisconsin location of the subject firm.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers employed at Quebecor World, Brookfield, Wisconsin who were adversely affected by a shift in production of (print) magazines and catalogs to Canada.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-59,355 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Quebecor World, including on-site leased workers of Westaff, DC Staffing Services and Driver Leasing Midwest, Inc., Brookfield, Wisconsin, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 8, 2005, through May 30, 2008, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 2nd day of April 2008.

Silicon Laboratories, Inc., Including On-Site Temporary Workers From TRC Staffing, Austin, TX; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on February 22, 2008, applicable to workers of Silicon Laboratories, Inc., Austin, Texas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on March 7, 2008 (73 FR 12466).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in functions relating to designing and testing of silicon chips.

New information shows that temporary workers of TRC Staffing were employed on-site at the Austin, Texas location of Silicon Laboratories, Inc. The Department has determined that these workers were sufficiently under the control of the subject firm to be considered temporary workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include temporary workers of TRC Staffing working on-site at the Austin, Texas location of the subject firm.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers employed at Silicon Laboratories, Inc., Austin, Texas who were adversely affected by a shift in production of silicon chips to Singapore.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-62,754 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Silicon Laboratories, Inc., including on-site temporary workers from TRC Staffing, Austin, Texas, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after January 28, 2007, through February 22, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.
