

during work hours and individual offices are also locked when vacant. Participant files are kept in a locked cabinet in a locked office. Access to these files is limited to approved staff members, and when the area the files are in is not under the direct control of NHHSP staff, the office and cabinet are kept locked. The File server is behind a locked office door in a locked server cabinet. Backup tapes are stored in a locked, fireproof floor safe, and a secure, confidential off-site vault.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Records are retained and disposed of under the authority of the HRSA Records Control Schedule contained in HRSA Appendix B-351, Item 25.P. Participant case files are transferred to the Federal Records Center in Suitland, Maryland, one year after closeout and are destroyed 15 years later. Unfunded or withdrawn applicant case files are destroyed 6 months after the end of the fiscal year in which the individual applied.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE:

To find out if the system contains records about you, contact the Policy-

Coordinating Official. The Policy-Coordinating Official will then refer the requester to the appropriate System Manager.

REQUESTS IN PERSON:

A subject individual who appears in person at a specific location seeking access to or disclosure of records relating to him/her shall provide his/her name, current address, Social Security number or other identifying information (e.g. date of birth, place of birth), dates of participation in one of the above-identified Programs, (or date of application if the individual was not selected for the program) and at least one piece of tangible identification, such as driver's license, passport, or voter registration card. Identification papers with current photographs are preferred but not required. (A Federal-issued picture ID is required to access many Federal facilities such as the Parklawn Building.) If a subject individual has no identification but is personally known to an agency employee, such employee shall make a written record verifying the subject individual's identity. Where the subject individual has no identification papers, the responsible agency official shall require that the subject individual certify in writing that he/she is the individual who he/she claims to be and that he/she understands that the knowing and willful request or acquisition of a record concerning an individual under false pretenses is a criminal offense subject to a $5,000 fine.

REQUESTS BY MAIL:

A written request must contain the name and address of the requester, Social Security number or other identifying information, and his/her signature which is either notarized to verify his/her identity or includes a written certification that the requester is the person he/she claims to be and that he/she understands that the knowing and willful request or acquisition of records pertaining to an individual under false pretenses is a criminal offense subject to a $5,000 fine. In addition, the following information is needed: dates of participation in one of the above-identified Programs and current status, such as in training, in deferment, in service, in default, or date of application if the individual was not selected for the program.

REQUESTS BY TELEPHONE:

Since positive identification of the caller cannot be established, telephone requests are not honored.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Same as notification procedures. Requesters should also provide a reasonable description of the record being sought. Requesters may also ask for an accounting of disclosures that have been made of their records, if any.

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

Same as notification and access procedures. Contact the Policy-Coordinating Official, provide a reasonable description of the record, specify the information being contested, the corrective action sought, and the reasons for requesting the correction, along with supporting information to show how the record is inaccurate, incomplete, untimely, or irrelevant.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

Subject individual; educational institutions; internship and/or residency training progress reports; employers; NHSC approved service sites; critical nursing shortage facilities; lending institutions and loan servicing agencies; health professional associations; National Practitioner Data Bank and/or Healthcare Integrity and Protection Data Bank, HHS grantees and contractors/subcontractors; consumer reporting agencies/credit bureaus; other Federal agencies, including but not limited to the Department of the Treasury, IRS, and the U.S. Postal Service; State health professions licensing boards and/or the Federation of State Medical Boards or a similar non-government entity; and third parties who provide references concerning the subject individual.

SYSTEMS EXEMPTED FROM CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE ACT:

None.
