DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

Office of the Secretary

[Docket No. DHS-2009-0112]

Privacy Act of 1974; Department of Homeland Security/ALL-029 Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Records System of Records

AGENCY: Privacy Office, DHS.

ACTION: Notice of Privacy Act system of records.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, the Department of Homeland Security proposes to update and reissue a Department of Homeland Security system of records titled, "Department of Homeland Security Office for Civil Rights and Civil Liberties-001 Matters System of Records," January 6, 2004. The system name is being changed to, "Department of Homeland Security/ALL-029 Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Records System of Records.” This name change, along with other changes to the system, are made to capture the expansion of the overall system of records to include both the Department Office for Civil Rights and Civil Liberties, as well as all component offices that perform civil rights and civil liberties functions, and staff of components who do not have a designated civil rights and civil liberties office but who do perform related civil rights and civil liberties functions (collectively referred to as “civil rights and civil liberties staff”). The Department’s civil rights and civil liberties staff advise Departmental and/or component leadership, personnel, and partners about civil rights and civil liberties issues, ensuring respect for civil rights and civil liberties in policy decisions and implementation of those decisions. Civil rights and civil liberties staff also review and assess information concerning abuses of civil rights, civil liberties, such as profiling on the basis of race, ethnicity, or religion, by employees and officials of the Department of Homeland Security. The Department’s civil rights and civil liberties staff also ensure that all Federally-assisted and Federally-conducted programs or activities of the Department comply with the provisions of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The Department’s civil rights and civil liberties staff investigate complaints, including: Allegations that individuals acted under color of law or otherwise abused their authority; discrimination; profiling; violations of the confidentiality provisions of the Violence Against Women Act; conditions of detention; treatment; due process; and watch list issues.

As a result of the biennial review of this system, updates have been made to change the system name to “Department of Homeland Security/ALL–029 Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Records System of Records” to reflect that the system is a Department-wide system of records, as well as updates to the: Categories of records; routine uses; retention and disposal; and Privacy Act exemptions.

Exclusion is made from this system for Office of Inspector General records relating to civil rights and civil liberties. Office of Inspector General records are covered by Department of Homeland Security/Office of Inspector General–002 Investigative Records System of Records, October 28, 2009.

This updated system will continue to be included in the Department of Homeland Security’s inventory of record systems.

DATES: Submit comments on or before August 9, 2010. This new system will be effective August 9, 2010.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The Department of Homeland Security’s (DHS) civil rights and civil liberties staff, including components, as well as staff of components who do not have a designated civil rights and civil liberties office, but who do perform related functions (civil rights and civil liberties staff), rely on the DHS/Civil Rights and Civil Liberties (CRCL)–001 Matters System of Records (69 FR 70464, December 6, 2004) and other component specific systems of records, for the collection and maintenance of records that concern the Department’s civil rights and civil liberties records. The system name is being changed to “DHS/ALL–029 Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Records System of Records” to reflect that the system is a Department-wide system of records and that all DHS civil rights and civil liberties records will now be covered by the DHS/ALL–029 Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Records System of Records. This name change, along with other changes to the system, are made to capture the expansion of the overall system of records including the Department’s CRCL Office, as well as component civil rights and civil liberties staff, staff of components who do not have a designated civil rights and civil liberties office but who do perform related functions, and to meet investigative and reporting responsibilities related to civil rights and civil liberties. The DHS/ALL–029 Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Records System of Records is the baseline system for civil rights and civil liberties activities, as led by the DHS Officer for Civil Rights and Civil Liberties, for the Department.

Civil rights and civil liberties complaints are initially reviewed to determine if the Department has jurisdiction over the alleged complaint. If the Department has jurisdiction and accepts the complaint, basic information about the case is maintained and processed within the DHS/ALL–029 Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Records System of Records. Information in this system may include, but is not limited to: Name; Social Security number or other identifier; address; phone number; alien registration number and other identifying data as may be necessary to review the complaint. If the complainant provides more personally identifiable information (PII) than is necessary, the information is not captured, but may remain in the paper file as information provided by the complainant.

Civil rights and civil liberties records may be referred to the Office of Inspector General (OIG) for handling under the Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended. The OIG decides whether it will pursue the case, or decline to investigate it and refer it back to CRCL or component civil rights and civil liberties office, staff of components who do not have a designated civil rights and civil liberties office, but who do perform related functions, for appropriate action. Any resulting OIG records are excluded from this system and are part of the DHS/OIG–002 Investigative Records System of Records (74 FR 55569, October 28, 2009).

The data collected in component civil rights and civil liberties offices or by staff of components who do not have a designated civil rights and civil liberties office, but who do perform related functions, are part of this system of records and are managed on a component by component basis and may or may not be reviewed or maintained by the CRCL Office. Component civil rights and civil liberties offices, and staff of components who do not have a designated civil rights and civil liberties office, but who do perform related functions, may consult and advise the CRCL Office on civil rights and civil liberties issues within the component, but are handled at the component level unless formally elevated to the CRCL Office.

The purpose of this system is to allow the DHS Officer for Civil Rights and Civil Liberties, component civil rights and civil liberties staff, and staff of components who do not have a designated civil rights and civil liberties office but who do perform related functions, to maintain relevant information necessary to review complaints or comments about alleged civil rights or civil liberties violations, or racial, ethnic, or religious profiling related to the Department's activities. The system will also track and maintain investigative files and records of complaint resolution and other issues, and facilitate oversight and accountability of the Department's civil rights and civil liberties complaint resolution mechanisms. DHS is authorized to implement this program primarily through 6 U.S.C. 345; 5 U.S.C. 301; 49 U.S.C. 114; 44 U.S.C. 3101; section 803 of Public Law 110-53; E.O. 12958, as amended. This system has an effect on individual privacy that is balanced by the need to address civil rights and civil liberties issues and matters within the Department. Risk is mitigated by limiting access to civil rights and civil liberties staff and other officials who need the information in the course of performing their duties. Routine uses contained in this notice include sharing with the Department of Justice (DOJ) for legal advice and representation; to a congressional office at the request of an individual; to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) for records management; to contractors in support of their contract assignment to DHS; to Federal, State, local and other governmental partners to enforce and prosecute laws and regulations; to agencies, organizations or individuals for the purpose of audit; to agencies, entities, or persons during a security or information compromise or risk, to another Federal agency for labor and employment relations; to an agency, organization, or individual when there could potentially be a risk to an individual; to former employees of the Department while responding to inquiries; to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), DOJ or other agencies for advice; to other agencies or organizations for redress; to the Department of Transportation (DOT) and its operating administrations for Transportation Security Administration (TSA) records and functions; and to the news media in the interest of the public. A review of this system is being conducted to determine if the system of records collects information under the Paperwork Reduction Act.

As a result of the biennial review of this system, updates have been made to change the system name to "Department of Homeland Security/ALL-029 Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Records System of Records" to reflect that the system is a Department-wide system of records; categories of records to reflect the addition of Social Security number; routine uses to reflect the addition of sharing with the DOT for legacy TSA records; retention and disposal to reflect the NARA retention and disposal policy and description; and the addition of exemption (k)(3) under the Privacy Act to include records at the U.S. Secret Service in conjunction with the protection of the President of the United States.

Exclusion is made from this system for Office of Inspector General records relating to civil rights and civil liberties. Office of Inspector General records are covered by DHS/OIG-002 Investigative Records System of Records, October 28, 2009.

This updated system will continue to be included in the Department of Homeland Security's inventory of record systems.

II. Privacy Act

The Privacy Act embodies fair information principles in a statutory framework governing the means by which the United States Government collects, maintains, uses, and disseminates individuals' records. The Privacy Act applies to information that is maintained in a "system of records." A "system of records" is a group of any records under the control of an agency for which information is retrieved by the name of an individual or by some identifying number, symbol, or other identifying particular assigned to the individual. In the Privacy Act, an individual is defined to encompass United States citizens and lawful permanent residents. As a matter of policy, DHS extends administrative Privacy Act protections to all individuals where systems of records maintain information on U.S. citizens, lawful permanent residents, and visitors. Individuals may request access to their own records that are maintained in a system of records in the possession or under the control of DHS by complying with DHS Privacy Act regulations, 6 CFR part 5.

The Privacy Act requires each agency to publish in the Federal Register a description denoting the type and character of each system of records that the agency maintains, and the routine uses that are contained in each system in order to make agency record keeping practices transparent, to notify individuals regarding the uses to which their records are put, and to assist individuals to more easily find such files within the agency. Below is the description of the DHS/ALL-029 Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Records System of Records.

Without this bulleted information the component(s) may not be able to conduct an effective search, and your request may be denied due to lack of
