

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques of other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of This Information Collection

(1) Type of information collection: Revision of a currently approved collection.

(2) The title of the form/collection: ViCAP Case Submission Form, FD-676.

(3) The agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the department sponsoring the collection: Forms 676; Critical Incident Response Group, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Primary: State and local government law enforcement agencies charged with the responsibility of investigating violent crimes.

Established by the Department of Justice in 1985, ViCAP serves as the national repository for violent crimes; specifically:

Homicides and attempted homicides, especially those that (a) involve an abduction, (b) are apparently random, motiveless, or sexually oriented, or (c) are known or suspected to be part of a series.

Sexual assaults, especially those that (a) were committed by a stranger or (b) are known or suspected to be part of a series.

Missing persons, where the circumstances indicate a strong possibility of foul play and the victim is still missing.

Unidentified human remains, where the manner of death is known or suspected to be homicide.

Comprehensive case information submitted to ViCAP is maintained in the ViCAP Web National Crime Database and is automatically compared to all other cases in the database to identify similarities.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: Of the approximately 17,000 government entities that are eligible to submit cases, it is estimated that forty to sixty percent will actually submit cases to ViCAP. The time burden of the respondents is less than 60 minutes per form.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with this collection: There are approximately 10,000 hours, annual burden, associated with this information collection.
