Applicants' Representations

1. Each Trust is registered under the Act as an open-end management investment company and is organized as a Massachusetts business trust, with the exception of AMT, which is organized as a Delaware statutory trust, and SASP, which is organized as a Delaware limited partnership. SIMC, a Delaware corporation, is registered as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended ("Advisers Act"), and currently serves as investment adviser to each existing Applicant Fund (as defined below). SIDCo., a Pennsylvania corporation, is registered as a broker-dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") and serves as the distributor for the existing Applicant Funds.

2. Applicants request the exemption to the extent necessary to permit any existing or future series of the Trusts and any other existing or future registered open-end investment company or series thereof that (a) is advised by SIMC or any person controlling, controlled by or under common control with SIMC (any such adviser or SIMC, an "Adviser");¹ (b) invests in other registered open-end investment companies ("Underlying Funds") in reliance on section 12(d)(1)(G) of the Act; and (c) is also eligible to invest in securities (as defined in section 2(a)(36) of the Act) in reliance on rule 12d1-2 under the Act (each an "Applicant Fund"), to also invest, to the extent consistent with its investment objectives, policies, strategies and limitations, in financial instruments that may not be securities within the meaning of section 2(a)(36) of the Act ("Other Investments").² Applicants also request that the order exempt any entity controlling, controlled by or under common control with SIDCo. that now or in the future acts as principal underwriter with respect to the transactions described in the application.

3. Consistent with its fiduciary obligations under the Act, each Applicant Fund's board of trustees or directors will review the advisory fees charged by the Applicant Fund's Adviser to ensure that they are based on services provided that are in addition to, rather than duplicative of, services provided pursuant to the advisory agreement of any investment company in which the Applicant Fund may invest.

Applicants' Legal Analysis

1. Section 12(d)(1)(A) of the Act provides that no registered investment company ("acquiring company") may acquire securities of another investment company ("acquired company") if such securities represent more than 3% of the acquired company's outstanding voting stock or more than 5% of the acquiring company's total assets, or if such securities, together with the securities of other investment companies, represent more than 10% of the acquiring company's total assets. Section 12(d)(1)(B) of the Act provides that no registered open-end investment company may sell its securities to another investment company if the sale will cause the acquiring company to own more than 3% of the acquired company's voting stock, or cause more than 10% of the acquired company's voting stock to be owned by investment companies and companies controlled by them.

2. Section 12(d)(1)(G) of the Act provides that section 12(d)(1) will not apply to securities of an acquired company purchased by an acquiring company if: (a) The acquired company and acquiring company are part of the same group of investment companies; (b) the acquiring company holds only securities of acquired companies that are part of the same group of investment companies, government securities, and short-term paper; (c) the aggregate sales loads and distribution-related fees of the acquiring company and the acquired company are not excessive under rules adopted pursuant to section 22(b) or section 22(c) of the Act by a securities association registered under section 15A of the Exchange Act or by the Commission; and (d) the acquired company has a policy that prohibits it from acquiring securities of registered open-end investment companies or registered unit investment trusts in reliance on section 12(d)(1)(F) or (G) of the Act.

3. Rule 12d1-2 under the Act permits a registered open-end investment company or a registered unit investment trust that relies on section 12(d)(1)(G) of the Act to acquire, in addition to securities issued by another registered investment company in the same group of investment companies, government securities, and short-term paper: (a) Securities issued by an investment company that is not in the same group of investment companies, when the acquisition is in reliance on section 12(d)(1)(A) or 12(d)(1)(F) of the Act; (b) securities (other than securities issued by an investment company); and (c) securities issued by a money market fund, when the acquisition is in reliance on rule 12d1-1 under the Act. For the purposes of rule 12d1-2, "securities" means any security as defined in section 2(a)(36) of the Act.

4. Section 6(c) of the Act provides that the Commission may exempt any person, security, or transaction from any provision of the Act, or from any rule under the Act, if such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

5. Applicants state that the Applicant Funds will comply with rule 12d1-2 under the Act, but for the fact that the Applicant Funds may invest a portion of their assets in Other Investments. Applicants request an order under section 6(c) of the Act for an exemption from rule 12d1-2(a) to allow the Applicant Funds to invest in Other Investments while investing in Underlying Funds. Applicants assert that permitting the Applicant Funds to invest in Other Investments as described in the application would not raise any of the concerns that the requirements of section 12(d)(1) were designed to address.

Applicants' Condition

Applicants agree that any order granting the requested relief will be subject to the following condition:

Applicants will comply with all provisions of rule 12d1-2 under the Act, except for paragraph (a)(2) to the extent

¹ Any other Adviser also will be registered under the Advisers Act.

² Every existing entity that currently intends to rely on the requested order is named as an applicant. Any existing or future entity that relies on the order in the future will do so only in accordance with the terms and conditions in the application.

that it restricts any Applicant Fund from investing in Other Investments as described in the application.

For the Commission, by the Division of Investment Management, under delegated authority.

Kevin M. O'Neill,
Deputy Secretary.

Applicants' Representations

1. Each John Hancock Fund is organized as a Massachusetts business trust and is registered under the Act as an open-end, management investment company. Some of the trusts have not created separate series of shares but most issue one or more series, each series of shares having a different investment objective and different investment policies and each such series is deemed to be a John Hancock Fund. Certain of the John Hancock

Funds either are or may be money market funds that comply with rule 2a-7 of the Act (each a "Money Market Hancock Fund" and collectively, the "Money Market Hancock Funds" and they are included in the term "John Hancock Funds"). JHA, JHAM and JHIMS are each a Delaware limited liability company that is registered as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 ("Advisers Act"), each are indirect subsidiaries of Manulife Financial Corporation and act as investment adviser to the John Hancock Funds.¹

2. John Hancock Funds may lend cash to banks or other entities by entering into repurchase agreements, purchasing short-term instruments or under arrangements whereby custodian fees are reduced. In order to meet an unexpected volume of redemptions or to cover unanticipated cash shortfalls, John Hancock Funds contracted for committed lines of credit with State Street Bank and Trust Company and The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation ("Bank Borrowing"). The amount of borrowing under each of these lines of credit is limited to the amount specified by fundamental investment restrictions and/or other policies of the applicable John Hancock Fund and section 18 of the Act.

3. If John Hancock Funds that experience a cash shortfall were to draw down on their Bank Borrowing, they would pay interest at a rate that is likely to be higher (and currently actually is higher) than the rate that could be earned by non-borrowing John Hancock Funds on investments in repurchase agreements and other short-term money market instruments of the same maturity as the Bank Borrowing ("Short-Term Instruments"). Applicants assert the difference between the higher rate paid on Bank Borrowing and what the bank pays to borrow under repurchase agreements or other arrangements represents the bank's profit for serving as the middleperson between a borrower and lender and is not attributable to any material difference in the credit quality or risk of such transactions.

¹ Applicants request that the order also apply to any existing or future series of the John Hancock Funds, to any other registered open-end management investment company or its series for which JHA, JHAM or JHIMS or a person controlling, controlled by, or under common control (within the meaning of section 2(a)(9) of the Act) with JHA, JHAM, or JHIMS serves as investment adviser ("Adviser"). All John Hancock Funds that currently intend to rely on the requested order have been named as applicants. Any other John Hancock Fund that relies on the requested order in the future will comply with the terms and conditions of the application.
