DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

U.S. Customs and Border Protection

Discontinuation of Customs Broker Importer Self-Assessment Pre-Certification Test

AGENCY: U.S. Customs and Border Protection; Department of Homeland Security.

ACTION: General notice.

SUMMARY: On April 17, 2013, U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) announced a test allowing customs brokers to pre-certify importers for participation in the Importer Self-Assessment (ISA) program. The Customs Broker Importer Self-Assessment Pre-Certification (Broker ISA PC) test was intended to leverage customs brokers' relationships with importers to facilitate and promote importer participation in the ISA program. Unfortunately, there was minimal importer participation in the test; thus, CBP has determined that it is not effective to continue with the Broker ISA PC test. This notice announces CBP's intention to discontinue the test and not to move forward with a permanent Broker ISA PC program.

DATES: As of September 21, 2018, the test is discontinued.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Broker ISA PC Test

On April 17, 2013, U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) announced a test in the Federal Register (78 FR 22895) allowing customs brokers to pre-certify importers for participation in the Importer Self-Assessment program. The primary goal of the test, known as the Customs Broker Importer Self-Assessment (ISA) Pre-Certification (Broker ISA PC) test, was to leverage customs brokers' relationships to facilitate and promote importer participation in the ISA program, especially for small and medium enterprises. The Broker ISA PC test allowed selected brokers, referred to as ISA pre-certifiers, to pre-certify importers for the ISA program.

The ISA program was established in 2002 to enable interested importers to voluntarily participate in a program that allows them to self-assess their own compliance with customs laws and regulations on a continuing basis. See 67 FR 41298 (June 17, 2002). The ISA program is a joint government-business trade facilitation partnership program that recruits trade compliant companies to build cooperative relationships that strengthen trade compliance. It is based on the premise that importers with strong internal controls are more likely to achieve a high level of compliance with customs laws and regulations; thus the program enables CBP to recognize and support importers who have implemented such programs.
