

provides that an agency is not required to publish a notice of proposed rulemaking in the Federal Register and solicit public comments when the agency has good cause to find that doing so would be “impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest.” 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(3)(B). The Department finds that good cause exists to dispense with the notice and public comment procedures for this final rule, as it concludes that such procedures are unnecessary because this rule merely extends the effective date of the Joint Employer Rescission Final Rule by 7 days in order to comply with the effective date requirements of the CRA for major rules. Moreover, the Joint Employer Rescission Final Rule was promulgated pursuant to notice and comment rulemaking, and this rule does not make any changes to that rule other than the brief delay of the effective date. 86 FR 40939 (July 30, 2021). Therefore, the Department is issuing this delay of effective date as a final rule.

Section 553(d) of the APA also provides that substantive rules should take effect not less than 30 days after the date they are published in the Federal Register unless “otherwise provided by the agency for good cause found[.]” 5 U.S.C. 553(d)(3). Since this rule merely delays the effective date of the Joint Employer Rescission Final Rule by 7 days as required by the CRA, and makes no other changes to that rule, the Department finds that it is unnecessary to delay the effective date of this action by 30 days. Accordingly, the Department finds that good cause exists to make this delay of effective date action effective on the date of publication.

Section 808 of the CRA provides that a rule shall take effect at the time determined by the promulgating agency when the agency for good cause finds that “notice and public procedure thereon are impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest.” 5 U.S.C. 808(2). The Department finds that good cause exists to dispense with notice and public procedure for this final rule, as it concludes that such procedures are unnecessary. As noted above, the Joint Employer Rescission Final Rule was published on July 30, 2021, with an effective date of September 28, 2021, and this rule merely delays the effective date of that rule by 7 days to comply with the requirements of the CRA. Therefore, the Department finds that good cause exists to make this delay of effective date effective on the date of publication. However, consistent with the CRA, the Department will submit to Congress and the Comptroller General the reports required by the Act. 5 U.S.C. 801(a)(1)(A)–(B).
