RIN 0651–AD56*2021 Increase of the Annual Limit on Accepted Requests for Track One Prioritized Examination*AGENCY: United States Patent and Trademark Office, Department of Commerce.ACTION: Interim rule.

SUMMARY: The Leahy-Smith America Invents Act (America Invents Act) includes provisions for prioritized examination of patent applications that have been implemented by the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO or Office) in previous rulemakings. The America Invents Act provides that the Office may not accept more than 10,000 requests for prioritization in any fiscal year (October 1 to September 30) until regulations setting another limit are prescribed. The Office published an interim rule in 2019 expanding the availability of prioritized examination by increasing the limit on the number of prioritized examination requests that may be accepted in a fiscal year to 12,000. The current interim rule further expands the availability of prioritized examination by increasing the limit on the number of prioritized examination requests that may be accepted in a fiscal year to 15,000.

DATES:Effective Date:* September 24, 2021.Applicability Date: The limit of 15,000 requests for prioritized examination accepted per year is applicable for fiscal year 2021.Comment Deadline Date: Written comments must be received on or before November 23, 2021.
