

Holding Company Act (BHC Act). Section 5 of the BHC Act authorizes the Board to require a bank holding company and any subsidiary of such company to submit reports under oath to keep the Board informed as to its financial condition, systems for monitoring and controlling financial and operating risks, and transactions with depository institution subsidiaries of the bank holding company.¹ The FR 2510 is mandatory for U.S. G–SIBs.

The information collected in the FR 2510 is collected as part of the Board's supervisory process, and is therefore considered confidential pursuant to exemption 8 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), which protects information contained in "examination, operating, or condition reports" obtained in the bank supervisory process. In addition, individual respondents may request that information be kept confidential pursuant to exemption 4 of the FOIA, which protects nonpublic commercial or financial information, which is both customarily and actually treated as private by the respondent. Determinations of confidentiality based on exemption 4 of the FOIA would be made on a case-by-case basis.

Regulation H require an SMB to seek prior approval of the Federal Reserve System before establishing or acquiring a domestic branch. Such requests for approval must be filed as applications at the appropriate Reserve Bank for the SMB. Due to the limited information that an SMB generally has to provide for branch proposals, there is no reporting form for a domestic branch application. An SMB is required to notify the Federal Reserve by letter of its intent to establish one or more new branches and provide evidence that public notice of the proposed branch(es) has been published by the SMB in the appropriate newspaper(s). The Federal Reserve uses the information provided to fulfill its statutory obligation to review branch applications before acting on the proposals and to otherwise supervise SMBs.

Legal authorization and confidentiality: The filing requirements under the FR 4001 are authorized by section 9(3) of the Federal Reserve Act.¹ The filing requirements under the FR 4001 are required to obtain a benefit.

The information in an SMB's domestic branch application is public. An SMB may request that portions of its application be kept confidential pursuant to exemption 4 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) if they contain commercial or financial information that is both customarily and actually treated as private.² Information provided by an SMB as part of its domestic branch application may also be considered confidential under FOIA exemption 6 if the application contains personal information, the disclosure of which would "constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy,"³ and under FOIA exemption 8 if it is obtained as part of an examination or supervision of a financial institution.⁴
