SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS), Office of Inspector General (OIG), is modifying and reissuing this system of records notice under the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552). DHS OIG is responsible for a wide range of oversight functions, including to initiate, conduct, supervise, and coordinate audits, investigations, inspections, and other reviews relating to the programs and operations of DHS. DHS OIG promotes economy, efficiency, and effectiveness within DHS and prevents, detects, and investigates employee corruption, fraud, waste, and abuse in its programs and operations. DHS OIG is responsible for investigating allegations of criminal, civil, and administrative misconduct involving DHS employees, contractors, grantees, and DHS programs and activities. These investigations can result in criminal prosecutions, fines, civil monetary penalties, and administrative sanctions. While DHS OIG is operationally a part of DHS, it operates independently of DHS and all offices within it.

The DHS/OIG-002 Investigative Records System of Records assists DHS OIG with receiving and processing allegations of misconduct, including violations of criminal and civil laws, as well as administrative policies and regulations pertaining to DHS employees, contractors, grantees, and other individuals and entities within DHS. The system includes complaints and investigation-related files. DHS OIG manages information provided during the course of its investigations to: Create records showing dispositions of allegations; audit actions taken by DHS management regarding employee misconduct; audit legal actions taken following referrals to the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) for criminal prosecution or civil action; calculate and report statistical information; manage OIG investigators' training; and manage Government-issued investigative property and other resources used for investigative activities.

DHS OIG is modifying the DHS/OIG-002 Investigative Records System of Records to update the Authorities, Categories of Records, Record Source Categories, and Routine Uses. The Authorities section is being updated to provide more precise statutes for collection: 6 U.S.C. 113(b); 6 U.S.C. 795; 6 U.S.C. 142; 6 U.S.C. 345; and the Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended 5 U.S.C. App. §§ 1-13. The Categories of Records are being updated to include: (1) Information obtained from social media; (2) video and photographic digital images; (3) case administrative information (e.g., status, reference number, method complaint received); (4) demographic information (e.g., gender, race, ethnicity); and (5) other types of credentials (e.g., driver's license, state ID, passport). The Categories of Records have also been updated to clarify the types of relevant information from inspections, reviews, and inquiries that may be collected.

The Record Source Categories has been updated to clarify that records may be obtained from a variety of sources, to include: Subjects, witnesses and others associated with investigations; other DHS Components and Federal, state, local, nongovernmental and foreign agencies; educational institutions; credit bureaus; medical service providers; financial institutions; commercial
