

support the provisions pertaining to non-competes in this matter—but my acquiescence to these provisions should not be construed as support for a sweeping condemnation of non-competes more generally.

Ban on No-Poach Agreements

The order contains an anti-no-poach provision that prevents DaVita from entering into any agreement that would restrict the divestiture buyer from soliciting DaVita's employees. I highlight this provision because some critics have asserted antitrust enforcement ignores competition for labor as an input.<sup>12</sup> I believe modern antitrust enforcement does, in fact, police the market for unlawful practices impacting competition for labor.<sup>13</sup> Naked no-poach agreements are per se illegal under the antitrust laws, and have been subject to enforcement accordingly.<sup>14</sup>

(“Remove any impediments within the control of Respondents that may deter relevant Divestiture Business Employees from accepting employment with the Acquirer, including removal of any non-compete . . . .”); Decision and Order, Stryker et al., No. 201–0014 at VI.B.3 (Dec. 17, 2020), <https://www.ftc.gov/system/files/documents/cases/2010014c4728strykerwrightorder.pdf> (“Remove any impediments within the control of Respondents that may deter Implant Business Employees from accepting employment with the Acquirer, including removal of any non-compete . . . .”); Decision and Order, Arko Holdings et al., No. 201–0041 at VI.B.3 (Oct. 7, 2020), https://www.ftc.gov/system/files/documents/cases/c-4726\_201\_0041\_arko\_empire\_order.pdf (“Remove any impediments within the control of Respondents that may deter Retail Fuel Employees from accepting employment with an Acquirer . . . .”). This consent does contain a new twist on our approach to non-competes. Specifically, DaVita may not enforce non-competes to the extent they prevent competitors or potential competitors from obtaining the services of a nephrologist, which will allow potential competitors to launch a competing dialysis clinic in Utah. Given my understanding of DaVita's business practices, the nephrologist shortage, and the historical industry context, I believe this remedy constitutes appropriate fencing-in relief.

With respect to the instant matter, DaVita and its former CEO were recently indicted for agreeing with competitors to refrain from recruiting one another's employees.<sup>15</sup> In a past consent order, where respondents had entered into no-poach agreements, provisions explicitly prohibiting these agreements have been included in an order.<sup>16</sup> I support the inclusion of an anti-no-poach provision in this order because of the relevant allegations against DaVita and to allow the Commission to pursue an order violation if DaVita attempts to limit competition through anticompetitive no-poach agreements in the future.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, this document provides public notice that OGE is proposing to revise and update the OGE/INTERNAL–1, –3, –4, and –5 systems of records in several respects, and rescind OGE/INTERNAL–2, Telephone Call Detail Records.

First, OGE proposes to rescind one system of records that is no longer in use by OGE, OGE/INTERNAL–2, Telephone Call Detail Records. OGE no longer maintains these records and has no plans to do so in the future. All records previously maintained under this system of records notice (SORN) have been destroyed in accordance with the National Archives and Records Administration General Records Schedule.

Second, OGE proposes to amend OGE/INTERNAL–1 Pay, Leave, and Travel Records, OGE/INTERNAL–3 Grievance Records, OGE/INTERNAL–4 Computer Systems Activity and Access Records, and OGE/INTERNAL–5 Employee Locator and Emergency Notification Records by updating the system locations, system managers, records access procedures, and notification procedures, in accordance with OGE's current organizational structure.

Third, OGE proposes to add two additional routine uses to OGE/INTERNAL–1 Pay, Leave, and Travel Records, OGE/INTERNAL–3 Grievance Records, OGE/INTERNAL–4, Computer Systems Activity and Access Records, and OGE/INTERNAL–5 Employee Locator and Emergency Notification Records in accordance with Office of Management and Budget guidance.

OMB Memorandum M–17–12 Preparing for and Responding to a Breach of Personally Identifiable Information (January 3, 2017) requires Federal agencies to publish routine uses to authorize disclosure of records that may reasonably be needed by a Federal agency or Federal entity in connection with breach response efforts. To satisfy the routine use requirements in OMB M–17–12, OGE proposes to add the two following routine uses to each of the four systems of records described above:

To appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when: (1) OGE suspects or has confirmed that there has been a breach of the system of records; (2) OGE has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed breach there is a risk of harm to individuals, the agency (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security; and (3) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with OGE's efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

To another Federal agency or Federal entity, when OGE determines that information from this system of records is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in (1) responding to a suspected or confirmed breach or (2) preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm to individuals, the recipient agency or entity (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security, resulting from a suspected or confirmed breach.

Fourth, OGE proposes to update its standard routine uses for all four revised SORNS. It proposes to combine and update the routine uses pertaining to litigation in OGE/INTERNAL–1 Pay, Leave, and Travel Records, OGE/INTERNAL–3 Grievance Records, OGE/INTERNAL–4, Computer Systems Activity and Access Records, and OGE/INTERNAL–5 Employee Locator and Emergency Notification Records in accordance with OMB and Department of Justice guidance and applicable case law. The remaining routine uses have been redesignated accordingly. It also proposes adding a routine use for reporting violations or potential violations of civil or criminal law or regulation to the SORNs that do not currently have such a routine use and making the wording consistent among the SORNs that do currently have it. Finally, OGE proposes to modify in accordance with OMB guidance the routine uses pertaining to congressional requests for assistance in the three systems that have such a routine use.

Fifth, OGE proposes to modify OGE/INTERNAL–1 Pay, Leave, and Travel Records to include records relating to requests for reasonable accommodations pursuant to the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act. These records are similar in nature to those currently covered by the system and are collected and maintained according to similar procedures. OGE further proposes to change the system name to OGE/INTERNAL–1 Pay, Leave, Travel, and Reasonable Accommodation Records.
