

program. The Exchange desires to remove the administrative burden associated with the requirement to annually renew and instead provide that the Affiliated Entity relationship will automatically renew each month, unless otherwise terminated. As is the case today, parties to the Affiliated Entity relationship may decide to terminate the relationship during any month by sending an email to the Exchange at least 3 business days prior to the last day of the month to terminate for the next month. Also, Cboe has a similar automatic renewal process for its Appointed OFP and Appointed Market-Maker Program.<sup>7</sup> The Exchange believes that this amendment will streamline the workflow for Participants by not requiring Participants to renew each year to continue the affiliated relationship.

The Exchange's proposal to amend the way Exchange Participants indicate their participation in the Affiliated Entity Program is equitable and not unfairly discriminatory. Today, any Participant may participate in the Affiliated Entity Program. The proposed changes would impact all Participants that voluntarily elect to participate in the Affiliated Entity Program in a uniform manner.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

Inter-Market Competition

The proposal does not impose an undue burden on inter-market competition. Cboe has a similar automatic renewal process for its Appointed OFP and Appointed Market-

Maker Program<sup>8</sup> as proposed herein for the Affiliated Entity Program.

Intra-Market Competition

The Exchange's proposal to amend the way Exchange Participants indicate their participation in the Affiliated Entity Program does not impose an undue burden on competition. Today, any Participant may participate in an Affiliated Entity relationship. The proposed changes would impact all Participants that voluntarily elect to participate in the Affiliated Entity Program in a uniform manner.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

No written comments were either solicited or received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act.<sup>9</sup>

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is: (i) Necessary or appropriate in the public interest; (ii) for the protection of investors; or (iii) otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule should be approved or disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Electronic Comments

- Use the Commission's internet comment form (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>); or
- Send an email to rule-comments@sec.gov. Please include File Number SR-NASDAQ-2021-095 on the subject line.

Self-Regulatory Organizations; MEMX LLC; Order Instituting Proceedings To Determine Whether To Approve or Disapprove a Proposed Rule Change To Establish a Retail Midpoint Liquidity Program

December 7, 2021.

I. Introduction

On August 18, 2021, MEMX LLC ("MEMX" or "Exchange") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission"), pursuant to Section

<sup>7</sup> See Cboe's Fees Schedule at footnote 23 "A Market-Maker may designate an Order Flow Provider ("OFP") as its "Appointed OFP" and an OFP may designate a Market-Maker to be its "Appointed Market-Maker" for purposes of qualifying for credits under AVP. In order to effectuate the appointment, the parties would need to submit the Appointed Affiliate Form to the Exchange by 3:00 p.m. CST on the first business day of the month in order to be eligible to qualify for credits under AVP for that month. The Exchange will recognize only one such designation for each party once every calendar month, which designation will automatically renew each month until or unless the Exchange receives an email from either party indicating that the appointment has been terminated. A Market-Maker that has both an Affiliate OFP and Appointed OFP will only qualify based upon the volume of its Appointed OFP. The volume of an OFP that has both an Affiliate Market-Maker and Appointed Market-Maker will only count towards qualifying the Appointed Market-Maker. Volume executed in open outcry is not eligible to receive a credit under AVP."

19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”)<sup>1</sup> and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,<sup>2</sup> a proposed rule change to establish a Retail Midpoint Liquidity Program (“Program”). The proposed rule change was published for comment in the Federal Register on September 8, 2021.<sup>3</sup> On October 19, 2021, the Commission designated a longer period within which to approve the proposed rule change, disapprove the proposed rule change, or institute proceedings to determine whether to disapprove the proposed rule change.<sup>4</sup> This order institutes proceedings under Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Exchange Act<sup>5</sup> to determine whether to approve or disapprove the proposed rule change.

II. Description of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange proposes to establish a Retail Midpoint Liquidity Program to provide retail investors with enhanced price improvement opportunities at the midpoint of the national best bid and offer (“Midpoint Price”) against a limited group of liquidity providers on the Exchange. Specifically, the Exchange proposes to allow Retail Member Organizations (“RMOs”) to submit a new type of order on behalf of retail investors that is designed to execute at the Midpoint Price (a “Retail Midpoint Order”). Contra-side liquidity would be provided almost exclusively by a new order type, called a Retail Midpoint Liquidity Order (“RML Order”), which any Exchange user would be permitted to submit.<sup>6</sup> The Exchange would permit users to elect whether to have their RML Orders count towards a new Retail Liquidity Identifier, which MEMX would disseminate through its proprietary market data feeds and the appropriate securities information processor (“SIP”) when such elected RML Order interest aggregates to form at least one round lot for a particular security.

Defined Terms and the Retail Liquidity Identifier

Under the proposal, “Retail Midpoint Order” would be defined as a Retail Order submitted by an RMO that is a Pegged Order<sup>7</sup> with a Midpoint Peg<sup>8</sup> instruction (“Midpoint Peg Order”) and that is only eligible to execute against RML Orders and other orders priced more aggressively than the Midpoint Price through the execution process described in proposed Exchange Rule 11.22(c). As proposed, a Retail Midpoint Order must have a time-in-force (“TIF”) instruction of IOC.<sup>9</sup> Further, an “RML Order” would be defined as a Midpoint Peg Order that is only eligible to execute against Retail Midpoint Orders through the execution process described in proposed Exchange Rule 11.22(c). As proposed, an RML Order must have a TIF instruction of Day,<sup>10</sup> RHO,<sup>11</sup> or GTT<sup>12</sup> and may not include a Minimum Execution Quantity<sup>13</sup> instruction.

According to the Exchange, the purpose of limiting Retail Midpoint Orders and RML Orders to interacting with each other (subject to the exception of Retail Midpoint Orders being eligible to execute against other orders priced more aggressively than the Midpoint Price) is that the proposed Program is designed to provide a mechanism whereby liquidity-providing users can provide price-improving liquidity at the Midpoint Price specifically to retail investors, and liquidity-removing RMOs submitting orders on behalf of retail investors can interact with such price-improving liquidity at the Midpoint Price “in a deterministic manner.”<sup>14</sup>

The Exchange proposes to disseminate a Retail Liquidity Identifier through the Exchange’s proprietary market data feeds, MEMOIR Depth<sup>15</sup> and MEMOIR Top,<sup>16</sup> and the appropriate SIP when designated<sup>17</sup>

<sup>7</sup> Pegged Orders are described in Exchange Rules 11.6(h) and 11.8(c) and generally defined as an order that is pegged to a reference price and automatically re-prices in response to changes in the national best bid and offer.

<sup>8</sup> A Midpoint Peg instruction is an instruction that may be placed on a Pegged Order that instructs the Exchange to peg the order to the Midpoint Price. See Exchange Rule 11.6(h)(2).

<sup>9</sup> “IOC” is an instruction the user may attach to an order stating the order is to be executed in whole or in part as soon as such order is received, and the portion not executed immediately on the Exchange or another trading center is treated as cancelled and is not posted to the MEMX Book. See Exchange Rule 11.6(o)(1). The term “MEMX Book” refers to the MEMX system’s electronic file of orders. See Exchange Rule 1.5(q).

<sup>17</sup> The term “designated” indicates that users submitting RML Orders have the option to either include their RML Orders in the Retail Liquidity Identifier or not. See also infra note 21 and accompanying text.

RML Order interest, aggregated to form at least one round lot for a particular security, is available, provided that such designated RML Order interest is resting at the Midpoint Price<sup>18</sup> and is priced at least $0.001 better than the national best bid (“NBB”) or national best offer (“NBO”).<sup>19</sup> The Retail Liquidity Identifier would reflect the symbol and the side (buy and/or sell) of the designated RML Order interest but would not include the price or size.<sup>20</sup> The Exchange proposes that a user may, but is not required to, designate an RML Order to be identified as RML Order interest for purposes of the Retail Liquidity Identifier pursuant to proposed Exchange Rule 11.22(b).<sup>21</sup>

Priority and Order Execution

Proposed Exchange Rule 11.22(c) would set forth the execution priority rules for the Program.<sup>22</sup> Proposed <sup>18</sup> The Exchange notes that an RML Order could have a limit price that is less aggressive than the Midpoint Price in which case it would not be eligible to trade with an incoming Retail Midpoint Order and therefore would not be included for purposes of Retail Liquidity Identifier dissemination since it would not reflect interest available to trade with Retail Midpoint Orders. See Notice, supra note 3, at 50414.

<sup>19</sup> The Exchange explains that because RML Orders are proposed to be only Midpoint Peg Orders, they will always represent at least $0.001 price improvement over the NBB or NBO, with two exceptions: (1) in a locked or crossed market; and (2) a sub-dollar security when the security’s spread is less than $0.002. See id. The Exchange would only disseminate the Retail Liquidity Identifier for sub-dollar securities if the spread in the security is greater than or equal to $0.002, meaning the Midpoint Price represents at least $0.001 price improvement over the NBB or NBO. See id.

<sup>20</sup> As such, the Exchange explains that it would remove the Retail Liquidity Identifier previously disseminated through the MEMOIR Depth and MEMOIR Top data products and through the appropriate SIP after executions against Retail Midpoint Orders have depleted the available designated RML Order interest such that the remaining designated RML Order interest does not aggregate to form at least one round lot, or in situations where there is no actionable RML Order interest (such as when the market is locked or crossed), in order to indicate to market participants that there is no longer designated RML Order interest of at least one round lot available. See id.

<sup>21</sup> Under Exchange Rule 11.8(c)(3), Pegged Orders, including Midpoint Peg Orders, are not eligible to include a Displayed instruction; however, as proposed, an RML Order would be eligible to include a Displayed instruction, which would be for the sole purpose of indicating to the Exchange that the user has designated the RML Order to be identified as RML Order interest for purposes of the Retail Liquidity Identifier pursuant to proposed Exchange Rule 11.22(b), and inclusion of the Displayed instruction would not indicate to the Exchange that the RML Order is to be displayed by the MEMX system on the MEMX Book. See id. at 50413 n.18. A user would be able to designate RML Order interest for this purpose on an order-by-order basis or on a port-by-port basis. See id. at 50413.

<sup>6</sup> As discussed below, Retail Midpoint Orders also would execute against displayable odd lot orders priced more aggressively than the Midpoint Price and non-displayed orders priced more aggressively than the Midpoint Price. Retail Midpoint Orders would not be eligible to execute against other types of midpoint interest, such as Midpoint Peg Orders (defined below).

Exchange Rule 11.22(c)(1) states that Retail Midpoint Orders and RML Orders would only execute at the Midpoint Price. Proposed Exchange Rule 11.22(c)(3) states that Retail Midpoint Orders would execute against RML Orders in time priority in accordance with Exchange Rule 11.10, except that RML Orders designated to be included in the Retail Liquidity Identifier would have priority over RML Orders that are not so designated. Thus, as proposed, because Retail Midpoint Orders are only eligible to execute against RML Orders and orders priced more aggressively than the Midpoint Price, other types of orders resting at the Midpoint Price that may be present on MEMX (including those with time priority over an RML Order) would not be allowed to execute against a Retail Midpoint Order and retail investors would not get the benefit of being able to access that additional midpoint liquidity through the Retail Midpoint Order type.

Proposed Exchange Rule 11.22(c)(2) provides that if there is: (A) A Limit Order<sup>23</sup> of Odd Lot<sup>24</sup> size that is displayed by the MEMX system (“Displayed Odd Lot Order”) and that is priced more aggressively than the Midpoint Price and/or (B) an order that is not displayed by the MEMX system (“Non-Displayed Order”) and that is priced more aggressively than the Midpoint Price, resting on the MEMX Book, an incoming Retail Midpoint Order would first execute against any such orders pursuant to the Exchange’s standard price/time priority in accordance with Exchange Rule 11.9 and Exchange Rule 11.10 before executing against resting RML Orders.<sup>25</sup> Proposed Exchange Rule 11.22(c)(2) further provides that any such executions would be at the Midpoint Price irrespective of the prices at which such Displayed Odd Lot Orders and/or Non-Displayed Orders were ranked by the MEMX system on the MEMX Book. Thus, as proposed, any additional price improvement over the Midpoint Price would not accrue to the retail investor’s Retail Midpoint Order but rather would accrue to the Displayed Odd Lot Order or Non-Displayed Order because those orders would execute at the Midpoint

Price, which is less aggressive than the price at which they were resting on the MEMX Book.

III. Proceedings To Determine Whether To Approve or Disapprove SR–MEMX–2021–10 and Grounds for Disapproval Under Consideration

The Commission is instituting proceedings pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Act<sup>26</sup> to determine whether the proposed rule change should be approved or disapproved. Institution of such proceedings is appropriate at this time in view of the legal and policy issues raised by the proposed rule change. Institution of proceedings does not indicate that the Commission has reached any conclusions with respect to any of the issues involved. Rather, as described below, the Commission seeks and encourages interested persons to provide comments on the proposed rule change to inform the Commission’s analysis of whether to disapprove the proposed rule change.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Act,<sup>27</sup> the Commission is providing notice of the grounds for disapproval under consideration. The Commission is instituting proceedings to allow for additional analysis of the proposed rule change’s consistency with Sections 6(b)(5)<sup>28</sup> and 6(b)(8)<sup>29</sup> of the Act. Section 6(b)(5) of the Act requires that the rules of a national securities exchange be designed, among other things, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest, and not be designed to permit unfair discrimination between customers, issuers, brokers, or dealers. Section 6(b)(8) of the Exchange Act requires that the rules of a national securities exchange not impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

The Commission asks that commenters address the sufficiency of the Exchange’s statements in support of the proposal, which are set forth in the Notice, in addition to any other comments they may wish to submit about the proposed rule change. In particular, the Commission seeks comment on the following aspects of the proposal and asks commenters to submit data where appropriate to support their views:

1. What are commenters’ views on proposed Exchange Rule 11.22(c)(2) and the treatment of orders priced more aggressively than the Midpoint Price when executing against Retail Midpoint Orders? In allowing Retail Midpoint Orders to first execute against orders on MEMX that are priced more aggressively than the Midpoint Price, the Exchange states that it seeks to ensure that the priority of more aggressively priced orders over less aggressively priced orders is maintained on the Exchange, consistent with Exchange Rule 11.9.<sup>30</sup> However, the Exchange proposes that Retail Midpoint Orders execute against any such Displayed Odd Lot Orders and/or Non-Displayed Orders at the Midpoint Price instead of the more aggressive prices at which such orders were ranked, which the Exchange explains is “because RMOs that submit Retail Midpoint Orders to the Exchange are, by selecting an order type that is specifically limited to executing at the Midpoint Price, expecting to receive an execution at the Midpoint Price and not at any other price(s).”<sup>31</sup> The Exchange further states that it “is proposing to address the needs of RMOs that focus their Retail Order trading on receiving executions at the Midpoint Price” and explains that “based on informal discussions with market participants, the Exchange believes that there are benefits associated with executing Retail Orders submitted to the Exchange at one price level rather than multiple prices, such as simplified record-keeping for retail investors and execution reporting by RMOs.”<sup>32</sup> Aside from the benefits that may accrue to the RMO (i.e., the broker-dealer handling the retail investor’s order) under the Exchange’s proposal, the Exchange’s proposal could deny the retail investor a further opportunity for price improvement as it would instead award that further price improvement to the resting Displayed Odd Lot Orders and/or Non-Displayed Orders. What are commenters’ views on the Exchange’s assertions and whether this aspect of the proposal could harm retail investors?

2. What are commenters’ views on proposed Exchange Rule 11.22(c)(2) and (3), which would only allow Retail Midpoint Orders to execute against RML Orders (and orders priced more aggressively than the Midpoint Price) but would not allow Retail Midpoint Orders to execute against other interest resting at the Midpoint Price, even if, for 11.22(c) also provides two examples to further demonstrate how these priority rules would operate.

<sup>25</sup> The Exchange states that Displayed Odd Lot Orders and Non-Displayed Orders are the only types of orders that could rest on the MEMX Book at a price that is more aggressive than the Midpoint Price, as any displayed buy (sell) order that is at least one round lot in size would be eligible to form the NBB (NBO). See Notice, supra note 3, at 50415 n.37; Exchange Rule 1.5(z).

example, those orders have time priority over the RML Order(s)?<sup>33</sup> In other words, the proposed rule would bypass a non-RML Midpoint Peg Order with time priority to execute the Retail Midpoint Order against an RML Order (which also is a Midpoint Peg Order, but one that is “less aggressive” in that it is not willing to trade with any incoming order but instead is limited to only trading with retail interest submitted as Retail Midpoint Orders). In its proposal, the Exchange states that the “Program is designed to incentivize RMOs to submit Retail Midpoint Orders to the Exchange” and that the Program “is designed to facilitate the provision of meaningful price improvement (i.e., at the Midpoint Price) for orders of retail investors.”<sup>34</sup> However, the proposal would prohibit Retail Midpoint Orders from interacting with non-RML Midpoint Peg Orders at the Midpoint Price, thus potentially limiting retail investors’ opportunities to obtain meaningful price improvement, especially if RML Order interest were of insufficient size to fill the Retail Midpoint Order in full.<sup>35</sup> What are commenters’ views of the Exchange’s assertions? Do commenters believe that this aspect of the proposal could possibly harm retail investors? Do commenters believe that precluding executions of Retail Midpoint Orders against non-RML Midpoint Peg Orders unfairly discriminates against such non-RML orders?

3. The Exchange further states that it “believes that it is appropriate and consistent with the Act to structure its [Program] such that Retail Midpoint Orders and RML Orders are only eligible to execute against each other at the Midpoint Price, so that Retail Midpoint Orders, which are entered on behalf of retail investors, receive price improvement that is meaningful by definition, as they are guaranteed, if executed, to execute at the Midpoint Price.”<sup>36</sup> Do commenters agree with that assertion? Or would that same rationale apply if the Exchange also allowed Retail Midpoint Orders to execute against non-RML midpoint interest (because if the Exchange were to do so, Retail Midpoint Orders also would be “guaranteed, if executed, to execute at the Midpoint Price” when executing against such non-RML midpoint interest)?

4. The Exchange also states that it “believes that introducing a program that provides and encourages additional liquidity and price improvement to Retail Orders, in the form of Retail Midpoint Orders designed to execute at the Midpoint Price, is appropriate because retail investors are typically less sophisticated than professional market participants and therefore would not have the type of technology to enable them to compete with such market participants.”<sup>37</sup> Do commenters agree that Retail Midpoint Orders, if permitted to take liquidity against resting non-RML midpoint interest, would be competing with such market participants in a way that could negatively impact retail investors?

Under the Commission’s Rules of Practice, the “burden to demonstrate that a proposed rule change is consistent with the [Act] and the rules and regulations issued thereunder . . . is on the [SRO] that proposed the rule change.”<sup>38</sup> The description of a proposed rule change, its purpose and operation, its effect, and a legal analysis of its consistency with applicable requirements must all be sufficiently detailed and specific to support an affirmative Commission finding,<sup>39</sup> and any failure of an SRO to provide this information may result in the Commission not having a sufficient basis to make an affirmative finding that a proposed rule change is consistent with the Act and the applicable rules and regulations.<sup>40</sup> Moreover, “unquestioning reliance” on an SRO’s representations in a proposed rule change would not be sufficient to justify Commission approval of a proposed rule change.<sup>41</sup>

The Commission believes it is appropriate to institute proceedings to allow for additional consideration and comment on the issues raised herein, any potential response to comments or supplemental information provided by the Exchange, and any additional independent analysis by the Commission.

IV. Request for Written Comments

The Commission requests that interested persons provide written submissions of their views, data, and arguments with respect to the issues identified above, as well as any other concerns they may have with the proposal. In particular, the Commission invites the written views of interested persons concerning whether the proposal is consistent with Sections 6(b)(5) and 6(b)(8), or any other provision of the Act, or the rules and regulations thereunder. Although there do not appear to be any issues relevant to approval or disapproval that would be facilitated by an oral presentation of views, data, and arguments, the Commission will consider, pursuant to Rule 19b–4, any request for an opportunity to make an oral presentation.<sup>42</sup>

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments regarding whether the proposal should be approved or disapproved by January 3, 2022. Any person who wishes to file a rebuttal to any other person’s submission must file that rebuttal by January 18, 2022.

Rule 17Ad-13

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 ("PRA") (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") has submitted to the Office of Management and Budget ("OMB") a request for approval of extension of the previously approved collection of information provided for in Rule 17Ad-13 (17 CFR 240.17Ad-13), under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78a et seq.).

Rule 17Ad-13 requires certain registered transfer agents to file annually with the Commission and the transfer agent's appropriate regulatory

A proposed rule change may take effect upon filing with the Commission if it is designated by the exchange as "establishing or changing a due, fee, or other charge imposed by the self-regulatory organization on any person, whether or not the person is a member of the self-regulatory organization." 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(3)(A)(ii).

authority a report prepared by an independent accountant on the basis of a study and evaluation of the transfer agent's system of internal accounting controls for the transfer of record ownership and the safeguarding of related securities and funds. If the independent accountant's report specifies any material inadequacy in a transfer agent's system, the rule requires the transfer agent to notify the Commission and its appropriate regulatory agency in writing, within sixty calendar days after the transfer agent receives the independent accountant's report, of any corrective action taken or proposed to be taken by the transfer agent. In addition, Rule 17Ad-13 requires that transfer agents maintain the independent accountant's report and any other documents required by the rule for at least three years, the first year in an easily accessible place. These recordkeeping requirements assist the Commission and other regulatory agencies with monitoring transfer agents and ensuring compliance with the rule. Small transfer agents and transfer agents that service only their own companies' securities are exempt from Rule 17Ad-13.

Approximately 100 professional independent transfer agents must file with the Commission one report prepared by an independent accountant pursuant to Rule 17Ad-13 each year. Commission staff estimates that, on average, the annual internal time burden for each transfer agent to submit the independent accountant's report to the Commission is minimal or zero. The time required for an independent accountant to conduct the study and evaluation of a transfer agent's system of internal accounting controls and complete the report varies depending on the size and nature of the transfer agent's operations. Commission staff estimates that, on average, each Rule 17Ad-13 report can be completed by the independent accountant in 120 hours. In light of Commission staff's review of previously filed Rule 17Ad-13 reports and Commission staff's conversations with transfer agents and accountants, Commission staff estimates that 120 hours are needed to perform the study and prepare the report on an annual basis. Commission staff estimates that the average hourly rate of an independent accountant is $260, resulting in a total annual external cost burden of $31,200 for each of the approximately 100 professional independent transfer agents. The aggregate total annual external cost for the 100 respondents is approximately $3,120,000.
