

117 Flightcrew Member Duty and Rest Requirements, §§ 117.11, 117.19, and 117.29. Air carriers are required to submit a report of exceeded flight duty periods and flight times, including scheduled maximum and actual flight duty periods and flight times, basic flight information (e.g., city pairs, departure times, flight number), and reason for exceedance. The purpose for the reports is to notify the FAA that the certificate holder has extended a flight time and/or FDP limitation. This information enables FAA to monitor trends in exceedance and possible underlying systemic causes requiring operator action as well as determine whether operators are scheduling realistically. Additionally, if air carriers choose to develop a Fatigue Risk Management System (FRMS) under § 117.7 they are required to collect data specific to the need of the operation for which they will seek an FRMS authorization. It results in an annual recordkeeping and reporting burden when carriers adopt the system because they need to report the related activities to the FAA. Each air carrier is also required to develop specific elements and incorporate these elements into their training program (§ 117.9). Once the elements have been incorporated, the air carrier must submit the revised training program for approval.

Respondents: 47 Air Carriers.

Frequency: On occasion.

Estimated Average Burden per

Response: Varies per requirement.

Estimated Total Annual Burden: 857 Hours.

Issued in Washington, DC, on December 15, 2021.

Sandra L. Ray,

Aviation Safety Inspector, AFS-260.

Petition for Exemption

Docket No.: FAA-2017-0683.

Petitioner: The Boeing Company.

Section(s) of 14 CFR Affected:

§ 25.813(e).

Description of Relief Sought: The Boeing Company (Boeing) is seeking relief from 14 CFR 25.813(e), which requires no door may be installed between any passenger seat that is occupiable for takeoff and landing and any passenger emergency exit, such that the door crosses any egress path (including aisles, crossaisles and passageways). Specifically, Boeing is proposing the FAA amend the conditions and limitations of Exemption No. 17635A, to allow for a movable divider between two adjacent single passenger suites. Thus, combining two single-passenger suites into a two-passenger suite when the center divider is in the stowed (open) position on its Boeing Model 777-8 and 777-9 Series airplanes.
