A person or party who wishes to protest one or more plats of survey identified above must file a written notice of protest with the State Director for the BLM in Alaska. The protest may be filed by mailing to BLM State Director, Alaska State Office, Bureau of Land Management, 222 West 7th Avenue, Anchorage, AK 99513 or by delivering it in person to BLM Alaska Public Information Center, Fitzgerald Federal Building, 222 West 7th Avenue, Anchorage, Alaska. The notice of protest must identify the plat(s) of survey that the person or party wishes to protest. You must file the notice of protest before the scheduled date of official filing for the plat(s) of survey being protested. The BLM will not consider any notice of protest filed after the scheduled date of official filing. A notice of protest is considered filed on the date it is received by the State Director for the BLM in Alaska during regular business hours; if received after regular business hours, a notice of protest will be considered filed the next business day. A written statement of reasons in support of a protest, if not filed with the notice of protest, must be filed with the State Director for the BLM in Alaska within 30 calendar days after the notice of protest is filed.

If a notice of protest against a plat of survey is received prior to the scheduled date of official filing, the official filing of the plat of survey identified in the notice of protest will be stayed pending consideration of the protest. A plat of survey will not be officially filed until the dismissal or resolution of all protests of the plat.

Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personally identifiable information in a notice of protest or statement of reasons, you should be aware that the documents you submit, including your personally identifiable information, may be made publicly available in their entirety at any time. While you can ask the BLM to withhold your personally identifiable information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

Authority: 43 U.S.C. chap. 3.

Thomas O'Toole,

Chief Cadastral Surveyor, Alaska.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Two Proposed Consent Decrees Under the Clean Water Act

On April 7, 2022, the Department of Justice lodged two proposed consent decrees with the United States District Court for the Northern District of Indiana in the lawsuit entitled United States of America and the State of Indiana v. the Sanitary District of Highland and the Town of Griffith, Indiana, Civil Action No. 2:22-cv-00086.

The United States and the State of Indiana filed this lawsuit under the Clean Water Act against the Sanitary District of Highland, Indiana and the Town of Griffith, Indiana. The complaint seeks injunctive relief and civil penalties for violations of the regulations that govern discharges of pollutants to waters of the State and United States. The Complaint alleges that both Highland and Griffith had numerous illegal discharges of sanitary sewage from their sanitary sewer systems and that both defendants failed to comply with an EPA administrative order under the Clean Water Act.

The United States and the State of Indiana reached two separate consent decrees with Highland and Griffith. The consent decree with Highland requires it to make improvements designed to eliminate sanitary sewer overflows by 2033 and pay a $175,000 civil penalty. The consent decree with the Town of Griffith requires it to make improvements designed to eliminate sanitary sewer overflows by 2026 and pay a $33,000 civil penalty.

The publication of this notice opens a period for public comment on each consent decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, and should refer to United States of America and the State of Indiana v. the Sanitary District of Highland and the Town of Griffith, Indiana, D.J. Ref. Nos. 90-5-1-1-3308/4 and 90-5-1-1-3308/3. All comments must be submitted no later than thirty (30) days after the publication date of this notice. Comments may be submitted either by email or by mail:
