

failure to comply with the Russia Additional Provisions could potentially result in legal liability and other consequences to ICC and could impede the enforceability of cleared CDS that reference the Russian Federation. For example, if there was a credit event that triggered credit protection, then the Russian Sanctions could disrupt settlement of such CDS by prohibiting secondary market transactions in Restricted Debt. Such disrupted settlement could result in CDS buyers not receiving any credit protection payments, effectively making the CDS unenforceable. The Commission therefore believes that by assuring compliance with the Russian Sanctions, the proposed rule change should help assure that ICC's legal basis for clearing CDS contracts referencing the Russian Federation is well-founded and enforceable.

Therefore, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change is with Rule 17Ad-22(e)(1).¹⁴

(C) Accelerated Approval of the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing, ICC requests that the Commission grant accelerated approval of the proposed rule change pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)(C)(iii) of the Act.¹⁵ Under Section 19(b)(2)(C)(iii) of the Act,¹⁶ the Commission may grant accelerated approval of a proposed rule change if the Commission finds good cause for doing so. ICC believes that accelerated approval is warranted because incorporating the Russia Additional Provisions is necessary for the maintenance of fair and orderly markets in CDS contracts referencing the Russian Federation in light of the restrictions on Restricted Debt imposed under the Russia Sanctions. Moreover, ICC believes approving the proposed rule change on an accelerated basis is needed for ICC to stay consistent with the uncleared market, which plans to implement the new provisions on or around April 25, 2022. Finally, ICC represents that the proposed rule change will not affect the safeguarding of funds or securities in the custody or control of ICC or for which it is responsible.

The Commission finds good cause, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)(C)(iii) of the Act,¹⁷ for approving the proposed rule change on an accelerated basis prior to the 30th day after the date of publication of notice in the Federal Register because the proposed rule change is required to implement the Russia Additional Provisions on or around April 25, 2022. As discussed above, the Commission believes that implementing the Russia Additional Provisions should help assure compliance with the Russia Sanctions, and therefore help avoid potential legal liability and disruptions to ICC's operations. The Commission further believes that implementing the Russia Additional Provisions on or around April 25, 2022 should help assure that ICC maintains a well-founded and enforceable legal basis for clearing CDS contracts that reference the Russian Federation. Finally, the Commission believes that implementing the Russia Additional Provisions on or around April 25, 2022 should help assure that ICC stays consistent with the uncleared market.

V. Conclusion

On the basis of the foregoing, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act and in particular with the requirements of Section 17A(b)(3)(F) of the Act¹⁸ and Rule 17Ad-22(e)(1)¹⁹ thereunder.

It is therefore ordered pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act²⁰ that the proposed rule change (SR-ICC-2022-005) be, and hereby is, approved on an accelerated basis.²¹
