

Abstract: Pursuant to the Administrative Dispute Resolution Acts of 1990 and 1996, 5 U.S.C. 561 et seq. and 571 et seq., and 29 U.S.C. 173(f), the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service provides conflict prevention, management, and resolution services, including, but not limited to, public policy facilitation and mediation services, to Federal agencies. As part of these services, sometimes FMCS employees need to survey or ask questions to determine the best process and participants to prevent, manage, or resolve the issue, particularly for public policy mediations, public policy or environmental facilitations, or negotiated rulemaking. To do so, FMCS has created a set of questions to ask various stakeholders about issues, concerns, engagement, and appropriate stakeholders relevant to the issues. The survey format will differ depending on the project but may be conducted in one or more of the following ways, both in-person and virtually: Individual or group interviews, individual or group discussions, or written surveys. The survey requests information such as stakeholder understanding of the particular issue, stakeholder interests in the particular issue, appropriate stakeholders, methods of engagement with the issue, and other similar information that will allow FMCS to best create a successful process. A link to the survey is found here: https://tags.fmcs.gov/4DAction/FC/DoAsynchTop?Fedreg*UPPJ*919/10300. To log in, go to: <https://tags.fmcs.gov/>, use username “Fedreg” and password “UPPJ.” The collection of such information is critical for ensuring the appropriate process, stakeholders, and stakeholder input in the process. No other collections are being conducted that would provide this information to FMCS.

Burden: The current total annual burden estimate is that FMCS will receive information from approximately 15,000 respondents per year. Interviews and discussions would be approximately thirty minutes in duration. Written surveys would take approximately ten minutes to complete. FMCS expects the total burden to not exceed 2,535 hours per year.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4), requires federal agencies such as FMSHRC to publish in the Federal Register notice of any new or modified system of records. As detailed below, FMSHRC is revising FMSHRC-06, Official Case Files Filed according to and Retrieved by Name of Individually-Named Miner, to update FMSHRC's address and listed contact information, to make changes to the categories of records in the system and the routine uses of records maintained in the system, and to update the policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system. The changes to the categories of records in the system more specifically describe the records in the system, while the changes to the routine uses state with greater specificity the routine uses that apply to the system rather than the system's prior reference to a general statement of routine uses.

The notice for FMSHRC-06, provided below in its entirety, is as follows.

30 U.S.C. 823, 44 U.S.C. 3101 et seq.;
29 CFR part 2700.

PURPOSE(S) OF THE SYSTEM:

FMSHRC provides trial and appellate review of cases arising under the Federal Mine Safety and Health Act of 1977, 30 U.S.C. 801 et seq. (2018) (Mine Act). Official case files store documents used by FMSHRC in its consideration and review of such cases and provide information regarding such cases.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Individually-named miners whose names are used for filing and retrieval purposes of the official case file of cases arising under the Mine Act. Official case files are retrieved by reference to docket number, and in some instances, by case name. In the large majority of cases before FMSHRC, case names are derived from the name of a mine operator or a union. In a small percentage of cases, cases are identified by an individual miner's name, such as when a miner brings a discrimination complaint in an individual capacity under 30 U.S.C. 815(c)(3), or when the Secretary of Labor takes an enforcement action against a miner under 30 U.S.C. 820(c) or 820(g). This system of records covers only those case files filed according to and retrieved by an individually-named miner's name.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Records in this system include notices, orders and decisions issued by FMSHRC, filings by parties and their representatives, related correspondence, hearing transcripts and exhibits, transcripts of oral argument, other case-related recordings, and FMSHRC documents pertaining to appeal of the case before a U.S. Court of Appeals.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

The parties, their representatives, FMSHRC.
