Agreement Suspending the Countervailing Duty Investigation on Sugar From Mexico: Final Results of the 2020 Administrative Review

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (Commerce) continues to find that the signatories, the Government of Mexico (GOM), and the respondent companies selected for individual examination, respectively, Impulsora Azucarera Del Tropic, S.A. de C.V. and its affiliate (collectively, Grupo Del Tropic), and Ingenio Huixtla SA de C.V. and its affiliates (collectively, Grupo Porres) (together, we refer to Grupo Del Tropic and Grupo Porres as "Respondents"), were in compliance with the terms of the Agreement Suspending the Countervailing Duty Investigation on Sugar from Mexico, as amended (CVD Agreement), during the period of review (POR) from January 1, 2020, through December 31, 2020, except for certain instances of inconsequential non-compliance. Commerce also continues to find that the CVD Agreement met the statutory requirements under sections 704(c) and (d) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act) during the POR. However, we intend to address certain issues identified in this review by opening consultations with the GOM under Section VIII.D.4 of the CVD Agreement.

DATES: Applicable July 6, 2022.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Sally C. Gannon or David Cordell, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-0162 or (202) 482-0408, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On January 7, 2022, Commerce published the Preliminary Results of this administrative review.¹

On February 14, 2022, the American Sugar Coalition and its members (petitioners)² and Respondents filed case briefs, and the GOM filed a letter in lieu of a case brief.³

On February 22, 2022, petitioners and Respondents filed rebuttal briefs, and the GOM filed a letter in lieu of a rebuttal brief.⁴

Scope of the CVD Agreement

The product covered by this CVD Agreement is raw and refined sugar of all polarimeter readings derived from sugar cane or sugar beets. Merchandise covered by this CVD Agreement is typically imported under the following headings of the HTSUS: 1701.12.1000, 1701.12.5000, 1701.13.1000, 1701.13.5000, 1701.14.1020, 1701.14.1040, 1701.14.5000, 1701.91.1000, 1701.91.3000, 1701.99.1015, 1701.99.1017, 1701.99.1025, 1701.99.1050, 1701.99.5015, 1701.99.5017, 1701.99.5025, 1701.99.5050, and 1702.90.4000.⁵ The tariff classification is provided for convenience and customs purposes; however, the written description of the scope of this CVD Agreement is dispositive.⁶

Analysis

Commerce continues to determine that the CVD Agreement met the statutory requirements under sections 704(c) and (d) of the Act, during the POR. We also continue to find, based on record evidence, that the GOM and Respondents, Grupo Del Tropic and Grupo Porres, were in compliance with the terms of the CVD Agreement during the POR, except for certain instances of inconsequential non-compliance. During the review, Commerce identified issues related to recordkeeping and certain complex transactions referred to as "swap transactions." We intend to consult with the GOM under Section VIII.D.4 of the CVD Agreement ("Operations Consultations") to ensure compliance with the CVD Agreement. Such consultations are necessary to demonstrate adherence to the statutory requirements of the CVD Agreement and to ensure that any potential administrative challenges to effective monitoring are diminished.

The issues raised in the case and rebuttal briefs are addressed in the accompanying Issues and Decision Memorandum and business proprietary memorandum.⁷ The issues are identified in the Appendix to this notice.
