

of New York and between O&R and private landowners. Such transactions are necessary to alter the alignment of—and to build on—those portions of the existing transmission line easement not located on West Point property.

The new Wilson Gate Collocated Substation would be built near the existing USAG—West Point Wilson Gate Substation. The new Wilson Gate Collocated Substation would be divided into two sections, one serving West Point and the other serving the surrounding communities. Upon completion of the project, the existing USAG—West Point Wilson Gate Substation would be decommissioned but maintained for switching purposes.

The EIS will analyze at least two transmission line route alternatives and a No-Action Alternative. The route alternatives would alter the alignment of the existing easement where necessary. The Northern Route to Wilson Gate Collocated Substation Alternative would grant an additional easement to O&R from the vicinity of the USAG—West Point Delafield Substation to the new Wilson Gate Collocated Substation. The Southern Route to Wilson Gate Collocated Substation Alternative would grant an additional easement to O&R from where the transmission line would split north of the intersection of Stony Lonesome Road and Route 9W, to the new Wilson Gate Collocated Substation.

The Proposed Action is expected to impact multiple resources, including wildlife, vegetation, threatened and endangered species, water resources (including state and federally regulated wetlands, surface waters, and floodplains), land use (including the Hudson River Coastal Zone), cultural resources, state park lands, the Hudson River view shed, topography, and soils. Construction activities would create noise and would impact air quality and traffic. Because of the size of the affected area, the project could have significant environmental impacts. The particular resources that would experience significant impacts are unknown at this time.

Consultation with federal and state agencies is required and will include:

- Section 7 consultation under the Endangered Species Act;
- New York State endangered species review;
- Section 106 consultation under the National Historic Preservation Act; and
- preparation of a coastal zone consistency determination.

O&R will need to obtain a number of federal, state, and local permits and approvals, including an Article VII Certificate of Environmental Compatibility and Public Need from the New York State Public Service Commission.

USAG—West Point developed a tentative schedule for the EIS. Two public meetings will occur approximately 20 days after Federal Register publication of this NOI. A Draft EIS is expected to be released for public review in late spring 2023, with public meetings to follow within approximately 20 days. The Final EIS will take into consideration all timely comments regarding the Draft EIS and is projected to be released in winter 2023–24. A Record of Decision is anticipated in late spring 2024.

Native American Tribes, government agencies, organizations, and individuals are invited to participate in the scoping process for this EIS by attending public meetings and/or by submitting written comments. USAG—West Point requests potential alternatives, information, and analyses relevant to the Proposed Action.

Due to the COVID–19 pandemic and the need to maintain social distancing, all public meeting materials will be provided online and all public meetings will convene by phone. Public meeting materials can be accessed at: <https://home.army.mil/westpoint/index.php/about/environmental-management-division>. Abstract: The American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARP) included an unprecedented $800 million to support the specific needs of homeless children and youth via the American Rescue Plan Elementary and Secondary School Emergency Relief—Homeless Children and Youth (ARP–HCY) Fund. State educational agencies (SEAs) and local educational agencies (LEAs) must use ARP–HCY funds to identify homeless children and youth, to provide homeless children and youth with wrap-around services to address the challenges of COVID–19, and to enable homeless children and youth to attend school and fully participate in school activities. This is a one-time grant program administered as part of the American Rescue Plan. The U.S. Department of Education (the Department) is seeking to understand how funds under this one-time grant program are being used.

Specifically, the Department is seeking to learn about the distribution of ARP–HCY funds by SEAs, the characteristics of LEAs receiving funds, and the characteristics of LEAs who chose not to participate in the distribution of funds in each state. Additionally, the Department would like to gather information on how SEAs are using the funds that were set aside at the State level under this program. Information obtained in this survey will be used to inform technical assistance and support provided by the Department and the National Center for Homeless Education (NCHE), resources developed by NCHE, and further studies.

Dated: July 12, 2022.
