

CDFI designation and for general Target Market accountability as part of the CDFI Fund certification standards (see <https://www.cdfifund.gov/programs-training/certification/cdfi/certification-pra>).

2. Should there be options for CDFIs to meet the accountability requirement through a lower threshold of Minority representation on a CDFI's governing board? If yes, what level of representation is appropriate?

3. Alternatively, is a standard of 33 percent Minority representation for a CDFI's governing board members in combination with 66 percent for a CDFI's advisory board (with at least one governing board member serving on the advisory board) appropriate to demonstrate accountability to Minority populations?

4. Given the regulatory requirements for the governing board composition of regulated financial institutions, as well as the absence of governing boards for some privately held entities, should there also be an option for non-MDI regulated entities or privately held entities without a governing board to demonstrate accountability for the purposes of MLI designation? If yes, what standard should be used?

5. Should the CDFI Fund allow a CDFI's principals or executive staff (meaning all directors and executive officers vested with the powers to manage and supervise the day-to-day affairs of an organization) to demonstrate accountability to Minority populations, either as an alternative to accountability through a governing board or in combination with a lower threshold of representative governing board members? If yes:

a. Which and how many of a CDFI's executive staff members should be necessary to demonstrate accountability to Minority populations, and in what combination with the CDFI's governing board?

b. The use of executive staff or principals to demonstrate accountability to a Minority population may be undermined due to the principal's or executive staff member's financial relationship to the organization. Are there any appropriate safeguards to mitigate such a conflict between the interests of a principal or executive staff member and the Minority community to which they are to be accountable? If yes, what are some safeguards?

6. Should the CDFI Fund allow the ownership of a CDFI to demonstrate accountability to Minority populations, either as an alternative to accountability through a governing board or in combination with a lower threshold of representative governing board members? If yes, should accountability mirror the MDI definition (i.e., 51 percent or more of the voting stock is owned by minority individuals) to be counted in determining minority ownership? If ownership should be permitted to demonstrate accountability only in combination with some level of governing board representation, what should that threshold be?

7. Should the CDFI Fund allow the composition of a CDFI's loan committees to demonstrate accountability to Minority populations, either as an alternative to accountability through a governing board or in combination with a lower threshold of representative governing board members? If yes, how many members of a CDFI's loan committee should be necessary to demonstrate accountability to Minority populations, and in what combination with the CDFI's governing board?

8. If a CDFI serves multiple Minority populations, for purposes of the MLI designation should it be required to have board or other representation reflective of each of the Minority populations it serves? If yes, how should the share of board or other representation for each Minority population the CDFI serves be determined?

9. The CDFI Fund is also considering the relationship between the standards for designation as an MLI and those for designation as a Native CDFI. To what extent should the two align?

a. Should status as a Native MDI automatically qualify as an accountability criterion for designation as a Native CDFI?

b. Should the status as a Native MDI automatically qualify as an accountability criterion if the CDFI also serves other Minority populations?

10. Should MLIs be able to demonstrate accountability through means other than those identified above? If yes, how?

III. General Designation Questions for Public Comment

In addition to the questions above, the CDFI Fund welcomes public comment on any aspect of the process or substance of the MLI designation. Is there additional information that the CDFI Fund should consider in the MLI designation process? If yes, please describe.
