

IV. Revision of the January 2021 PV29 Risk Evaluation

A. Why is EPA revising the risk determination for the PV29 risk evaluation?

EPA is finalizing the revised risk determination for the PV29 risk evaluation pursuant to TSCA section 6(b) and consistent with Executive Order 13990 (“Protecting Public Health and the Environment and Restoring Science to Tackle the Climate Crisis”) and other Administration priorities (Refs. 2, 3, 4, and 5). EPA is revising specific aspects of the first ten TSCA existing chemical risk evaluations in order to ensure that the risk evaluations better align with TSCA’s objective of protecting health and the environment. For the PV29 risk evaluation, this includes: (1) making the risk determination in this instance based on the whole chemical substance instead of by individual conditions of use and (2) emphasizing that EPA does not rely on the assumed use of PPE when making the risk determination.

B. What are the revisions?

EPA is now finalizing the revised risk determination for the 2021 PV29 Risk Evaluation (Ref. 1) pursuant to TSCA section 6(b). Under the revised determination, EPA concludes that PV29, as evaluated in the risk evaluation as a whole, presents an unreasonable risk of injury to health when evaluated under its conditions of use. This revision replaces the previous unreasonable risk determinations made for PV29 by individual conditions of use, supersedes the determinations (and withdraws the associated order) of no unreasonable risk for the conditions of use identified in the TSCA section 6(i)(1) no unreasonable risk order, and clarifies the lack of reliance on assumed use of PPE as part of the risk determination.

These revisions do not alter any of the underlying technical or scientific information that informs the risk characterization, and as such the hazard, exposure, and risk characterization sections are not changed, except to statements about PPE assumptions in section 2.3.1.4 (Consideration of Engineering Controls and PPE), paragraph four, and section 4.2.3 (table 4–5, Assumed PPE Protection Considered for Risk Determination by COU, and introductory text). The discussion of the issues in this Notice and in the accompanying final revision to the risk determination supersede any conflicting statements in the prior executive summary, and section 2.3.1.4 and section 4.2.3 (table 4–5) from the January 2021 PV29 Risk Evaluation (Ref. 1) and the response to comments document (Ref. 8).

The revised unreasonable risk determination for PV29 includes additional explanation of how the risk evaluation characterizes the applicable OSHA requirements, or industry or sector best practices, and also clarifies that no additional analysis was done, and the risk determination is based on the risk characterization (section 4) of the 2021 PV29 Risk Evaluation (Ref. 1).

C. Will the revised risk determination be peer reviewed?

The risk determination (section 5 of the 2021 PV29 Risk Evaluation (Ref. 1)) was not part of the scope of the Science Advisory Committee on Chemicals (SACC) peer review of the PV29 risk evaluation. Thus, consistent with that approach, EPA did not conduct peer review of the final revised unreasonable risk determination for the PV29 risk evaluation because no technical or scientific changes were made to the hazard or exposure assessments or the risk characterization.

V. Order Withdrawing Previous Order Regarding Unreasonable Risk Determinations for Certain Conditions of Use

EPA is also issuing a new order to withdraw the TSCA section 6(i)(1) no unreasonable risk order issued in section 5.4.1 of the 2021 PV29 Risk Evaluation (Ref. 1). This final revised risk determination supersedes the condition of use-specific no unreasonable risk determinations in the January 2021 PV29 Risk Evaluation (Ref. 1). The order contained in section 5.5 of the revised risk determination (Ref. 11) withdraws the TSCA section 6(i)(1) order contained in section 5.4.1 of the January 2021 PV29 Risk Evaluation (Ref. 1). Consistent with the statutory requirements of section 6(a), the Agency will propose risk management action to address the unreasonable risk determined in the PV29 risk evaluation.
