Federal Travel Regulation (FTR); Marking, Redacting, and Segregating Information When Reporting Travel Data

AGENCY: Office of Government-wide Policy (OGP), General Services Administration (GSA).

ACTION: Notice of GSA Bulletin FTR 23-02, marking, redacting, and segregating information when reporting travel data.

SUMMARY: GSA Bulletin FTR 23-02 clarifies the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requirement of Federal agencies to reasonably segregate (i.e., withhold) and release (i.e., disclose) only non-exempt information when reporting on the use of first class and business class transportation accommodations. Further, this bulletin advises that GSA posts first class and business class data reported to it to GSA's FOIA electronic reading room. Therefore, agencies along with their legal counsel must review their data for proper release determinations prior to reporting required data to GSA so as to ensure that protected information is not posted publicly.

DATES: Applicable: September 28, 2022.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For clarification of content, contact Mr. LaMan Dantzer, Office of Government-wide Policy, Office of Asset and Transportation Management, at travelpolicy@gsa.gov. Please cite Notice of GSA Bulletin FTR 23-02.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION: FTR §§ 300-70.100 through 103 establish the requirements for agencies to report annually on the use of first class and business class transportation by Government travelers on official business. FTR § 300-70.103 specifies that agencies are required to submit protected data in the aggregate (i.e., compiled). Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(2), GSA makes Government travel reports publicly available on its FOIA electronic reading room, which is accessible online at <https://www.gsa.gov/reference/freedom-of-information-act-foia/electronic-reading-room>.

Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA); Database Cost Reporting

AGENCY: Office of Government-wide Policy (OGP), General Services Administration (GSA).

ACTION: Notice of FMR Bulletin 2022-F1, database cost reporting.

SUMMARY: FMR Bulletin 2022-F1. This bulletin clarifies, highlights, and reminds agencies of the importance of accurately reporting the cost of federal advisory committees to Congress and the public. It also adds the requirement to include financial reporting instructions in agency administrative procedures. This requirement will result in greater assurance that data reported in the FACA database is consistent with agencies' actual costs, and Congress will have greater assurance that it can rely on these data to inform decisions about funding for FACA committees.

DATES: Applicable: September 28, 2022.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For clarification of content, contact Ms. Lorelei Kowalski, Director of the Committee Management Secretariat, Office of Government-wide Policy by email at Lorelei.kowalski@gsa.gov. Please cite Notice of FMR Bulletin 2022-F1.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA), as amended, 5 U.S.C. App. 2, requires that:

- Each agency keep records of advisory committee funds that can be audited by the Comptroller General (§ 12(a))
- Congress and the public to be kept informed with respect to the cost of advisory committees (§ 2(b)(5))
- The GSA Administrator institute an annual comprehensive review (ACR) of the activities and responsibilities of advisory committees (§ 7(b))
- Each agency head must establish uniform administrative guidelines and management controls for the advisory committees established by that agency (§ 8(a))

During a recent evaluation of 11 selected committees covered under the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA) that serve the Departments of Commerce, Health and Human Services, and the Treasury, the Government Accountability Office determined that approximately 29 percent of selected committees' cost data reported in the GSA FACA database were inconsistent with the corresponding cost data held in agency records. FMR bulletin 2022–F1 clarifies the procedures and requirements for reporting agency cost data to Congress and the public, to improve the quality of data reporting from agencies.

Authorities delegated:

The authority delegated to me by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to administer the provisions of the PDG B–5, authorized by Section 9212 of the Every Student Succeeds Act, 42 U.S.C. 9831 note, now and hereafter for the life of the program. I also rescind the delegation to the Director, Office of Child Care.

Section 9212 of Every Student Succeeds Act, 42 U.S.C. 9831 note, authorizes the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to award initial and renewal grants to eligible entities for the purpose of carrying out the requirements of PDG B–5 grant program. This includes administering the grants funded under this program, as well as administrative services and contracts related to technical assistance to support the program. The initial PDG B–5 grants were designed to facilitate collaboration and coordination among existing programs within the state’s early childhood care and education system. The PDG B–5 Renewal Grant Initiative will fund states to enhance, expand, and/or build upon activities described in their initial grant.

The authority delegated to me by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services regarding implementation of the Tribal Maternal, Infant, and Early Childhood Home Visiting Program (Tribal MIECHV), authorized and funded by Section 511 of Title V of the Social Security Act, now and hereafter for the duration of the agreement with the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) to administer the program. Since FY 2010, HRSA and ACF have collaborated on the administration of the MIECHV program, which includes a set aside for the tribal home visiting program. Funding is provided by HRSA to ACF for administrative services and contracts related to research, evaluation, and associated technical assistance through an Intra-agency Agreement mechanism and for tribal grant program and technical assistance through an Intra-Departmental Delegation of Authority.
