[Docket ID: CISA–2022–0010]

Cyber Incident Reporting for Critical Infrastructure Act of 2022: Washington, DC Listening SessionAGENCY: Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency, Department of Homeland Security.ACTION: Notice of public listening session.

SUMMARY: The Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency (CISA) is announcing one additional public listening session located in Washington, DC to receive input on the forthcoming proposed regulations required by the Cyber Incident Reporting for Critical Infrastructure Act of 2022 (CIRCIA). This session will allow interested parties to provide input to CISA on the same key areas of interest published in the Federal Register on September 12, 2022.

DATES: An additional public listening session is scheduled to be held on the following date and time at the following location:

Washington, DC—October 19, 2022; 11:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m.; Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments Building, 777 North Capitol Street NE, Washington, DC 20002.

CISA reserves the right to reschedule, move to virtual, or cancel this session for any reason, including a health emergency, severe weather, or an incident that impacts the ability of CISA to safely conduct the session in person at the proposed date, time, and location. Any change to the date, location, or start and end time for this listening session will be posted on www.cisa.gov/circia.

CISA is committed to ensuring all participants have equal access to this session regardless of disability status. If you require reasonable accommodation due to a disability to fully participate, please contact CISA at circia@cisa.dhs.gov or (202) 964–6869 as soon as possible prior to the session.

Registration is encouraged for this public listening session and priority access will be given to individuals who register. To register, please visit www.cisa.gov/circia and follow the instructions available there to complete registration. Registration for the session will be accepted until 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Daylight Time) two days before the session.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Todd Klessman, CIRCIA Rulemaking Team Lead, circia@cisa.dhs.gov, 202–964–6869.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This public listening session is intended to serve as an additional means for interested parties located in Washington, DC to provide input to CISA on aspects of the proposed regulations to implement CIRCIA prior to the publication of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. CISA is particularly interested in receiving stakeholder input in the same key areas identified in section IV (Key Inputs Solicited by the Agency) of the Notice published in the Federal Register on September 12, 2022 87 FR 55830. This public listening session will also observe the same participation procedures provided in section III (Public Listening Session Procedures and Participation) of the same Federal Register Notice. 87 FR 55830 (Sept. 12, 2022).

CISA notes that this public meeting is being held solely for information and program-planning purposes. Inputs provided during the meeting do not bind CISA to any further actions.

Todd B. Klessman,

Senior Policy Advisor, Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency, Department of Homeland Security.

National Call for Nominations for Site-Specific Advisory CommitteesAGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Interior.ACTION: Notice of call for nominations.

SUMMARY: The purpose of this notice is to request public nominations for five of the Bureau of Land Management's (BLM) citizens' advisory committees affiliated with specific sites on the BLM's National Conservation Lands. The five advisory committees provide advice and recommendations to the BLM on the development and implementation of management plans in accordance with the statute under which the sites were established. The advisory committees covered by this request for nominations are identified below. The BLM will accept public nominations for 30 days after the publication of this notice.

DATES: All nominations must be received no later than November 4, 2022.

ADDRESSES: Nominations and completed applications should be sent to the appropriate BLM offices listed in the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section of this Notice.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Carrie Richardson, BLM Office of Communications, at (202) 742–0649 or crichardson@blm.gov. Individuals in the United States who are deaf, deafblind, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability may dial 711 (TTY, TDD, or TeleBraille) to access telecommunications relay services.

Individuals outside the United States should use the relay services offered within their country to make international calls to the point-of-contact in the United States.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Federal Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA) directs the Secretary of the Interior to involve the public in planning and issues related to management of lands administered by the BLM. Section 309 of FLPMA (43 U.S.C. 1739) directs the Secretary to establish 10- to 15-member citizen-based advisory committees that are consistent with the Federal Advisory Committee Act. The rules governing BLM Advisory Committees are found at 43 CFR 1784.

Individuals may nominate themselves or others for appointment by the Secretary. Nominees must be residents of the State in which the advisory council has jurisdiction. The BLM will evaluate nominees based on their education, training, experience, and knowledge of the geographic area of the advisory committees. Nominees should demonstrate a commitment to collaborative resource decision-making.

Simultaneous with this notice, BLM State Offices will issue press releases providing additional information for submitting nominations. Before including any address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in the application, nominees should be aware this information may be made publicly available at any time. While the nominee can ask to withhold the personal identifying information from public review, the BLM cannot guarantee that it will be able to do so. Nomination forms and instructions can be obtained for each committee from the points of contact listed below by mail or by phone request or online at https://www.blm.gov/sites/blm.gov/files/1120-019_0.pdf. Nominees should note the interest area(s) they are applying to represent on their application. All applications must be accompanied by letters of reference that describe the nominee's experience and qualifications to serve on the Committee from any represented interests or organizations, a completed application, and any other information that speaks to the nominee's qualifications.

National Call for Nominations for Resource Advisory Councils

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of call for nominations.

SUMMARY: The purpose of this notice is to request public nominations for 13 of the Bureau of Land Management's (BLM) statewide and regional Resource Advisory Councils (RAC) that have vacant positions or members whose terms are scheduled to expire. These RACs provide advice and recommendations to the BLM on land use planning and management of the National System of Public Lands within their geographic areas.

DATES: All nominations must be received no later than November 4, 2022.

ADDRESSES: Nominations and completed applications should be sent to the appropriate BLM offices listed in the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section of this notice.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Carrie Richardson, BLM Office of Communications, at (202) 742–0649 or crichardson@blm.gov. Individuals in the United States who are deaf, deafblind, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability may dial 711 (TTY, TDD, or TeleBraille) to access telecommunications relay services. Individuals outside the United States should use the relay services offered within their country to make international calls to the point-of-contact in the United States.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Federal Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA) directs the Secretary of the Interior to involve the public in planning and addressing issues related to management of lands administered by the BLM. Section 309 of FLPMA (43

U.S.C. 1739) directs the Secretary to establish 10- to 15-member citizen-based advisory councils that are consistent with the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA). As required by FACA, RAC membership must be balanced and representative of the various interests concerned with the management of the public lands. The rules governing RACs are found at 43 CFR 1784. The RACs include the following three membership categories:

Category One—Holders of Federal grazing permits or leases within the area for which the RAC is organized; represent interests associated with transportation or rights-of-way; represent developed outdoor recreation, off-highway vehicle users, or commercial recreation activities; represent the commercial timber industry; or represent energy and mineral development.

Category Two—Representatives of nationally or regionally recognized environmental organizations; dispersed recreational activities; archaeological and historical interests; or nationally or regionally recognized wild horse and burro interest groups.

Category Three—Hold State, county, or local elected office; are employed by a State agency responsible for the management of natural resources, land, or water; represent Indian Tribes within or adjacent to the area for which the RAC is organized; are employed as academicians in natural resource management or the natural sciences; or represent the affected public at large.

Individuals may nominate themselves or others. Nominees must be residents of the State in which the RAC has jurisdiction. The BLM will evaluate nominees based on their education, training, experience, and knowledge of the geographic area of the RAC. Nominees should demonstrate a commitment to collaborative resource decision-making.

The following must accompany all nominations:

- A completed RAC application, which can either be obtained through your local BLM office or online at: https://www.blm.gov/sites/blm.gov/files/1120-019_0.pdf.
- Letters of reference from represented interests or organizations; and
- Any other information that addresses the nominee's qualifications.

Simultaneous with this notice, BLM State Offices will issue press releases providing additional information for submitting nominations.

Before including any address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in the application, nominees should be aware this information may be made publicly available at any time. While the nominee can ask to withhold the personal identifying information from public review, the BLM cannot guarantee that it will be able to do so.
