

of executed volume of multiply-listed equity and ETF options trades.¹⁶ Therefore, currently no exchange possesses significant pricing power in the execution of multiply-listed equity and ETF options order flow. More specifically, in August 2022, the Exchange had less than 12% market share of executed volume of multiply-listed equity and ETF options trades.¹⁷

The Exchange believes that the proposed rule change reflects this competitive environment because it modifies the Exchange's fees in a manner designed to continue to incent Floor Brokers to direct trading interest (particularly QCC transactions) to the Exchange, to provide liquidity and to attract order flow. To the extent that Floor Brokers are incentivized to utilize the Exchange as a primary trading venue for all transactions, all of the Exchange's market participants should benefit from the improved market quality and increased opportunities for price improvement.

The Exchange notes that it operates in a highly competitive market in which market participants can readily favor competing venues. In such an environment, the Exchange must continually review, and consider adjusting, its fees and credits to remain competitive with other exchanges. For the reasons described above, the Exchange believes that the proposed rule change reflects this competitive environment. The Exchange further believes that the proposed change could promote competition between the Exchange and other execution venues, including those that currently offer rebates on QCC transactions, by encouraging additional orders (and, in particular, QCC orders) to be sent to the Exchange for execution.¹⁸

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Standardized Curriculum concept is a voluntary approach to training for title 14 Code of Federal Regulations (14 CFR) part 135 training when provided by part 142 training centers. It provides an efficient means for approving training curricula offered by part 142 training centers while increasing the consistency of training, testing, and checking delivered to part 135 operators with an emphasis on standardization. The Standardized Curriculum concept supports the overarching goals to enhance training and checking and promote safer operational practices and is consistent with applicable regulations. Additional information about standardized curricula is available in Advisory Circular (AC) 142-1, Standardized Curricula Delivered by Part 142 Training Centers.

Discussion

The FAA tasked the Aviation Rulemaking Advisory Committee (ARAC) in March 2020 with providing advice and recommendations on the most effective ways to achieve standardization (where appropriate) and significant administrative efficiency in check pilot qualification, flight instructor qualification, and part 135 air carrier training curricula delivered by part 142 training centers, known as the Standardized Curriculum concept.

Under ARAC, the Standardized Curriculum concept was tasked to the Training Standardization Working Group (TSWG). TSWG membership includes representatives from training centers, aircraft manufacturers, operators, and aviation industry organizations. The TSWG was tasked to develop and recommend part 135 standardized curricula for each aircraft or series of aircraft, which includes the maneuvers, procedures, and functions to be performed during training and checking.

The TSWG developed a GV-series standardized curricula, which includes recommended GV maneuvers, procedures, and functions to meet the regulatory requirements in part 135. The TSWG submitted the recommended curricula to the ARAC for consideration. The ARAC subsequently approved the curricula and submitted it to FAA for review.
