

The following is a description of the information collection requirements for is approved under this collection:

Section 96.25(c)(1)(i) requires PALs to inform the SAS if a CBSD is no longer in use.

Section 96.25(c)(2)(i) creates a default protection contour for any CBSD at the outer limit of the PAL Protection Area, but allows a PAL to self-report a contour smaller than that established by the SAS. These rules which contain information collection requirements are designed to provide for flexible use of this spectrum, while managing three tiers of users in the band, and create a low-cost entry point for a wide array of users. The rules will encourage innovation and investment in mobile broadband use in this spectrum while protecting incumbent users. Without this information, the Commission would not be able to carry out its statutory responsibilities.

Background

On October 28, 2022, the Commission released a Notice of Inquiry and Order, GN Docket No. 22-352, Expanding Use of the 12.7-13.25 GHz Band for Mobile Broadband or Other Expanded Use (FCC 22-80). In the Order portion of this item, the Commission noted that on September 19, 2022, the International, Media, Public Safety and Homeland Security, and Wireless Telecommunications Bureaus (Bureaus) announced a temporary, 180-day, freeze, effective as of September 19, 2022, on filing new or modified applications for licenses in the 12.7 GHz band.¹ The purpose of this freeze was "to preserve the current landscape of authorized operations in the 12.7 GHz band pending the Commission's consideration of actions that might encourage the larger and more effective use of radio in the public interest."² The Bureaus noted that "[t]he Commission or the Bureaus may extend the freeze if doing so is deemed necessary to avoid undermining the purpose of the freeze."³ In view of the Commission's adoption of the Notice of Inquiry, the accompanying Order extends the temporary freeze pending the outcome of GN Docket No. 22-352. The Bureaus retain jurisdiction to modify the freeze notwithstanding this order.
