I. Background

The ACPAC evaluates the Department of Transportation’s aviation consumer protection programs and provides recommendations to the Secretary for improving them, as well as recommending any additional consumer protections that may be needed.

During the June 28, 2022, meeting of the ACPAC, the subject of transparency of airline ancillary service fees was considered as members heard presentations about previous Department actions in this area and the perspectives of various stakeholders. On September 26, 2022, the Department announced the Enhancing Transparency of Airline Ancillary Service Fees NPRM (RIN 2105–AF10) (Ancillary Fees Transparency NPRM) and made the rulemaking available on its website and regulations.gov. Since then, the Ancillary Fees Transparency NPRM has been published in the Federal Register and is available at <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/>
