

continue beyond October 31, 2022.¹⁹ Importantly, extending the temporary relief provided in SR–NASDAQ–2020–076 immediately upon filing and without a 30-day operative delay will allow the Exchange to continue critical adjudicatory and review processes in a reasonable and fair manner and meet its critical investor protection goals, while also following best practices with respect to the health and safety of hearing participants.²⁰ The Commission also notes that this proposal extends without change the temporary relief previously provided by SR–NASDAQ–2020–076.²¹ As proposed, the temporary changes would be in place through January 31, 2023 and the amended rules will revert back to their original state at the conclusion of the temporary relief period and, if applicable, any extension thereof.²² For these reasons, the Commission believes that waiver of the 30-day operative delay for this proposal is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. Accordingly, the Commission hereby waives the 30-day operative delay and designates the proposal operative upon filing.²³

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule should be approved or disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

¹⁹ See supra Item II.

²⁰ See 87 FR 64526, at 64528–29 (noting the same in granting FINRA’s request to waive the 30-day operative delay so that SR–FINRA–2022–029 would become operative immediately upon filing).

²¹ See supra note 7.

²² See supra note 4. As noted above, the Exchange states that if it requires temporary relief from the rule requirements identified in this proposal beyond January 31, 2023, it may submit a separate rule filing to extend the effectiveness of the temporary relief under these rules.

²³ For purposes only of waiving the 30-day operative delay, the Commission has considered the proposed rule change’s impact on efficiency, competition, and capital formation. See 15 U.S.C. 78c(f).

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Federal Railroad Administration

[Docket Number FRA-2022-0082]

Petition for Waiver of Compliance

Under part 211 of title 49 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), this document provides the public notice that on August 15, 2022, BNSF Railway Company (BNSF) petitioned the Federal Railroad Administration (FRA) for a waiver of compliance from certain provisions of the Federal railroad safety regulations contained at 49 CFR part 232 (Brake System Safety Standards for Freight and Other Non-Passenger Trains and Equipment). FRA assigned the petition Docket Number FRA-2022-0082.

Specifically, BNSF seeks relief with respect to the application of 49 CFR 232.205(c)(1)(ii)(B), Class I brake test—initial terminal inspection, and 232.207(b)(1), Class IA brake tests—1,000-mile inspection, for trains operating in distributive power mode. BNSF requests to extend the maximum allowable brake pipe air flow from the present regulatory limit of 90 cubic feet per minute (CFM) to 120 CFM for distributed power-equipped trains under specified operating conditions.

In support of its petition, BNSF submitted a report from the air flow tests conducted by BNSF in Staples, Minnesota, in June 2022. BNSF also states that “increasing the allowable flow to 120 CFM will even further reduce” walking exposures that employees encounter and that the use of distributive power “enhances safer train handling in cold weather operations.”

A copy of the petition, as well as any written communications concerning the petition, is available for review online at www.regulations.gov.

Interested parties are invited to participate in these proceedings by submitting written views, data, or comments. FRA does not anticipate scheduling a public hearing in connection with these proceedings since the facts do not appear to warrant a hearing. If any interested parties desire an opportunity for oral comment and a public hearing, they should notify FRA, in writing, before the end of the comment period and specify the basis for their request.
