SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Regulatory Flexibility Act (“RFA”), codified at 5 U.S.C. 601–612, requires an agency to review its rules that have a significant economic impact upon a substantial number of small entities within ten years of the publication of such rules as final rules. 5 U.S.C. 610(a). The purpose of the review is “to determine whether such rules should be continued without change, or should be amended or rescinded . . . to minimize any significant economic impact of the rules upon a substantial number of such small entities.” 5 U.S.C. 610(a). The RFA sets forth specific considerations that must be addressed in the review of each rule:

- the continued need for the rule;
- the nature of complaints or comments received concerning the rule from the public;
- the complexity of the rule;
- the extent to which the rule overlaps, duplicates or conflicts with other federal rules, and, to the extent feasible, with state and local governmental rules; and
- the length of time since the rule has been evaluated or the degree to which technology, economic conditions, or other factors have changed in the area affected by the rule. 5 U.S.C. 610(b).

The list below includes rules adopted in 2013 that may have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities (but excludes rules that have been substantially changed since adoption, rules that are minor amendments to previously adopted rules, and rules that are ministerial, procedural, or technical in nature). Where the Commission has previously made a determination of a rule’s impact on small businesses, the determination is noted on the list.

The Commission particularly solicits public comment on whether the rules listed below affect small businesses in new or different ways than when they were first adopted. The rules and forms listed below are scheduled for review by staff of the Commission.

L. 111–203, sec. 939A, 124 Stat. 1376 (2010).

Description: The Commission adopted amendments to a rule and three forms under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (“Investment Company Act”) and the Securities Act of 1933 (“Securities Act”) in order to implement a provision of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (“Dodd-Frank Act”). Specifically, rule 5b–3 under the Investment Company Act contained a reference to credit ratings in determining when an investment company (“fund”) may treat a repurchase agreement as an acquisition of securities collateralizing the repurchase agreement for certain purposes under the Investment Company Act. The amendments replaced this reference to credit ratings with an alternative standard designed to retain a similar degree of credit quality to that in prior rule 5b–3. The Commission also adopted amendments to Forms N–1A, N–2, and N–3 under the Investment Company Act and the Securities Act to eliminate the required use of NRSRO credit ratings when a fund chooses to depict its portfolio holdings by credit quality.

Prior RFA Analysis: When the Commission adopted the amendments on December 27, 2013, it published a Final Regulatory Flexibility Analysis in the adopting release, Release No. 33–9506, available at: <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2014/01/08/2013-31425/removal-of-certain-references-to-credit-ratings-under-the-investment-company-act>. Description: The Commission amended certain broker-dealer annual reporting, audit, and notification requirements under the Exchange Act. The amendments included a requirement that broker-dealer audits be conducted in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (“PCAOB”) in light of explicit oversight authority provided to the PCAOB by the Dodd-Frank Act to oversee these audits. The amendments further required a broker-dealer that clears transactions or carries customer accounts to agree to allow representatives of the Commission or the broker-dealer’s designated examining authority (“DEA”) to review the documentation associated with certain reports of the broker-dealer’s independent public accountant and to allow the accountant to discuss the findings relating to the reports of the accountant with those representatives when requested in connection with a regulatory examination of the broker-dealer. Finally, the amendments required a broker-dealer to file a new form with its DEA that elicits information about the broker-dealer’s practices with respect to the custody of securities and funds of customers and non-customers.

Description: The Commission and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“CFTC”) (together, the “Commissions”) jointly adopted rules and guidelines to require certain regulated entities to establish programs to address risks of identity theft. These rules and guidelines implemented provisions of the Dodd-Frank Act, which amended the Fair Credit Reporting Act and directed the Commissions to adopt rules requiring entities that are subject to the Commissions’ respective enforcement authorities to address identity theft. First, the rules required financial institutions and creditors to develop and implement a written identity theft prevention program designed to detect, prevent, and mitigate identity theft in connection with certain existing accounts or the opening of new accounts. The rules included guidelines to assist entities in the formulation and maintenance of programs that would satisfy the requirements of the rules. Second, the rules established special requirements for any credit and debit card issuers that are subject to the Commissions’ respective enforcement authorities, to assess the validity of notifications of changes of address under certain circumstances.

I. What action is the EPA proposing to take?

As explained below, the EPA is proposing to conditionally approve into the SIP certain Reg. 7 rules as meeting the 2008 8-hour ozone NAAQS miscellaneous metal coatings CTG¹ and major source NO_x RACT requirements for the Moderate Denver Metro/North Front Range (DMNFR) Area. The rules that are the subject of this action were not acted on in our July 3, 2018,² February 24, 2021,³ November 5, 2021⁴ rulemakings. This proposed conditional approval is based on the State’s commitment to make specified further revisions to these rules, and submit them for approval into the SIP, to address deficiencies identified in the State’s May 31, 2017 and May 10, 2019 submittals.

Under section 110(k)(4) of the CAA, the EPA may conditionally approve a plan based on a commitment from a state to adopt specific enforceable measures by a date certain no later than one year from the date of approval. The conditionally approved provisions are a part of the SIP and thus are federally enforceable as of the effective date of the final conditional approval. If the EPA conditionally approves the identified Reg. 7 rules, the State must meet its commitment to submit the necessary SIP revisions to the EPA by June 30,
