

proposes to require carriers and ticket agents to clearly disclose baggage fees, change fees, and cancellation fees to consumers whenever fare and schedule information is provided to consumers for flights to, within, and from the United States. The Ancillary Fees Transparency NPRM also proposes to require these entities to clearly disclose, whenever fare and schedule information is provided, the fees for adjacent seating, if any, to consumers traveling with young children on flights to, within, and from the United States, and make these fees transactable. The Department is proposing that all of these disclosures be provided on a passenger-specific or itinerary-specific basis. The Department is also proposing to require that carriers provide useable, current, and accurate information regarding these fees to ticket agents that sell or display the carrier's fare and schedule information.

In addition, the ACPAC will vote on the recommendations to the Department made by the Members during December 8, 2022, meeting regarding the Department's Airline Ticket Refunds and Consumer Protections NPRM. More information regarding prior meetings, including recordings of meetings, can be found on the ACPAC web pages available here: <https://www.transportation.gov/airconsumer/ACPAC>.

III. Public Participation

The January 12, 2023, the meeting will begin at 10:00 a.m. EST, and the Committee members will deliberate and decide on recommendations, if any, to make to the Department on Ancillary Fees Transparency NPRM. The ACPAC will also vote on recommendations regarding the Department's NPRM on Airline Ticket Refunds and Consumer Protections. At the January 12, 2023, ACPAC meeting, the members of the public will be able to observe deliberations and voting by ACPAC on the topics mentioned above. However, there will not be an opportunity to make oral comments. Members of the public may submit written comments for the ACPAC consideration electronically to the ACPAC Docket (DOT-OST-2018-0190) any time before the meeting.
