The Commission believes that waiver of the operative delay is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest because it will allow the Exchange to it will allow the rules discussed above to remain in effect for DMM firms to continue to operate with a mix of employees working remotely and others physically present on the Trading Floor. Accordingly, the Commission hereby waives the 30-day operative delay and designates the proposal operative upon filing.¹⁸

At any time within 60 days of the filing of such proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings under Section 19(b)(2)(B)¹⁹ of the Act to determine whether the proposed rule change should be approved or disapproved.
