

to a case in the Clerk’s office, a copy thereof shall be served on all counsel of record, including amicus curiae counsel, in person, by mail, by third-party commercial carrier, or by electronic means if the party being served consents. See Rule 16(b). When a party is not represented by counsel, service shall be made on such party in person, by mail, or by third-party commercial carrier. When reasonable, considering such factors as the immediacy of the relief sought, distance, and cost, service must be at least as expeditious as the manner used to file the pleading or other paper with the Court. See Rule 36.

The proposed change to Rule 39(a) would read:

(a) In General. At or before the filing of any pleading or other paper relative to a case, a copy thereof shall be served on all counsel of record, including amicus curiae counsel, in person, by mail, by third-party commercial carrier, or by electronic means. When a party is not represented by counsel, service shall be made on such party in person, by mail, or by third-party commercial carrier. When reasonable, considering such factors as the immediacy of the relief sought, distance, and cost, service must be at least as expeditious as the manner used to file the pleading or other paper with the Court. See Rule 36.

Comment: The advent of electronic filings renders a consent requirement unnecessary.

Guidelines for Electronic Filing of Pleadings

The Guidelines for Electronic Filing of Pleadings currently reads:

* * * * *

e. The Joint Appendix to the brief will be filed in paper form only with the required number of paper copies rather than electronically. If the appellant or petitioner files the brief electronically, the Joint Appendix will be filed on the same day the brief is filed electronically.

The proposed change to the Guidelines for Electronic Filing of Pleadings would read:

* * * * *

e. The Joint Appendix to the brief, to include copies, will be filed in paper form only. Audio and video recordings are exempt from this paper requirement for the Joint Appendix to the brief. If the appellant or petitioner files the brief electronically, the Joint Appendix will be filed on the same day the brief is filed.

Comment: Electronically filing audio and video recordings will allow for easier transmission and access to the recordings and explicitly stating the Court’s policy will provide clarity to filers.
